Archaeology Anita Yasuda,2017-04-17 How do we learn more about the people of the past Through archaeology Archaeologists are great detectives They look for clues from the past called artifacts that have been buried for hundreds even thousands of years They investigate sites at the bottom of the sea on land and on mountain peaks Archaeologists look closely at objects and where they were found on a site to discover who what when where why and how people lived from thousands of years ago to the recent past In Archaeology Cool Women Who Dig children ages 9 through 12 learn about this amazing field and meet three dynamic women who are working in archaeology around the world Chelsea Rose is a historical archaeologist with Southern Oregon University Alexandra Jones runs Archaeology in the Community in Washington DC and Justine Benanty is a maritime archaeologist from New York City Children will also be introduced to several pioneering female archaeologists including Jane Dieulafoy Gertrude Bell and Harriet Boyd Hawes These are people who strived to be successful in a field that wasn't always welcoming to women Nomad Press books in the Girls in Science series supply a bridge between girls interests and their potential futures by investigating science careers and introducing women who have succeeded in science Compelling stories of real life archaeologists provide readers with role models that they can look toward as examples of success Archaeology Cool Women Who Dig uses engaging content links to primary sources and essential questions to whet kids appetites for further exploration and study of archaeology This book explores the history of archaeology the women who helped pioneer field research and the multitude of varied careers in this exciting and important field Both boys and girls are encouraged to find their passion in the gritty field of archaeology

Historic Preservation & the Imagined West Judy Mattivi Morley,2006 She draws on extensive interviews city council proceedings and historic plats and photographs to construct a detailed picture of how these districts originally looked and were used how they were renovated and to what ends they were marketed

Persons and Things Roberto Esposito,2015-05-07 What is the relationship between persons and things And how does the body transform this relationship In this highly original new book Roberto Esposito one of Italy's leading political philosophers considers these questions and shows that starting from the body rather than from the thing or the person can help us to reconsider the status of both Ever since its beginnings our civilization has been based on a strict unequivocal distinction between persons and things founded on the instrumental domination of persons over things This opposition arose out of ancient Roman law and persisted throughout modernity to take its place in our current global market where it continues to generate growing contradictions Although the distinction seems to appear clear and necessary to us what we are continually witnessing in legal economic and technological practice is a reversal of perspectives some categories of persons are becoming assimilated with things while some types of things are taking on a personal profile With his customary rigour Roberto Esposito argues that there exists an escape route out of this paradox constituted by a new point of view founded in the body Neither a person nor a thing the human body becomes the decisive element in rethinking the concepts and values that govern our philosophical legal and political lexicons

The Old Master Hongkyung Kim, 2012-01-01 This unique highly contextualized translation of the Laozi is based on the earliest known edition of the work Text A of the Mawangdui Laozi written before 202 BCE No other editions are comparable to this text in its antiquity Hongkyung Kim also incorporates the recent archaeological discovery of Laozi related documents disinterred in 1993 in Guodian seeing these documents as proto materials for compilation of the Laozi and revealing clues for disentangling the work from complicated exegetical contentions Kim makes extensive use of Chinese commentaries on the Laozi and also examines the classic Chinese texts closely associated with the formation of the work to illuminate the intellectual and historical context of Laozi's philosophy Kim offers several original and thought provoking arguments on the Laozi including that the work was compiled during the Qin which has traditionally been viewed as typical of Legalist states and that the Laozi should be recognized as a syncretic text before being labeled a Daoist one

Experience and Possibility Joseph Mendola, 2021 Ontology concerns the general nature of the different categories of beings for instance objects like cars and people and properties like colors and shapes Modality concerns what is possible and what is necessary Experience and Possibility explores the surprising ways in which modality is involved in the ontology of the things we experience

The Oxford Handbook of Aquinas Brian Davies, Eleonore Stump, 2012-01-25 This volume presents an introduction to Aquinas and a guide to his thinking on almost all the major topics on which he wrote The book begins with an account of Aquinas's life and the historical context of his thought The subsequent sections address topics that Aquinas himself discussed The final sections of the volume address the development of Aquinas's thought and its historical influence

The Things of Others: Ethnographies, Histories, and Other Artefacts Olívia Maria Gomes da Cunha, 2020-05-18 The Things of Others Ethnographies Histories and Other Artefacts deals with the things mainly but not only mobilized by anthropologists in order to produce knowledge about the African American the Afro Brazilian and the Afro Cuban during the 1930s However the book's goal is not to dig up evidence of the creation of an epistemology of knowledge and its transnational connections The research on which this book is based suggests that the artefacts created in fieldwork offices libraries laboratories museums and other places and experiences beyond the important fact that these places and situations involved actors other than the anthropologists themselves have been different things during their troubled existence The book seeks to make these differences apparent highlighting rather than concealing the relationships between partial modes of making and being Afro as a subject of science If the artefacts created in a variety of situations have been different things we should ask what sort of things they were and how the actors involved in their creation sought to make them meaningful The book foregrounds these discontinuous and ever changing contours     The Builder ,1927
