Maxwell,2013-10-08 1 New York Times bestselling author John C Maxwell believes that any setback whether professional or personal can be turned into a step forward when you possess the right tools to turn a loss into a gain Drawing on nearly fifty years of leadership experience Dr Maxwell provides a roadmap for winning by examining the eleven elements that constitute the DNA of learners who succeed in the face of problems failure and losses 1 Humility The Spirit of

Learning 2 Reality The Foundation of Learning 3 Responsibility The First Step of Learning 4 Improvement The Focus of Learning 5 Hope The Motivation of Learning 6 Teachability The Pathway of Learning 7 Adversity The Catalyst of Learning 8 Problems The Opportunities of Learning 9 Bad Experiences The Perspective for Learning 10 Change The Price of Learning 11 Maturity The Value of Learning Learning is not easy during down times it takes discipline to do the right thing when something goes wrong As John Maxwell often points out experience isn't the best teacher evaluated experience is What Would George Do? Nan Marshall, 2013-12-04 At first glance the world of the twenty first century and the world of our first president could hardly be more different Modern life is filled with distractions from technology hectic schedules and multitasking However George Washington lived through a time of great turmoil As a general and politician he was subject to stressors to an extreme that most of us will never know Graciousness and dignity however were his hallmarks and he lived his life by the code defined in The Rules of Civility People make great efforts to be civil While compassion and concern for the well being of others can be lost beneath the shuffle of our daily lives it still exists This practical and elegant guide offers valuable lessons for inner tranquility such as the difference between working hard and always being in a hurry as well as a guide for social situations including the importance of quality time with others table manners romantic propriety and congenial communication While technology has moved forward the question What would George Washington do has become more relevant than ever Culture and System in Family Therapy Inga-Britt Krause, 2018-04-17 Starting with the MacPherson Report and its pronouncements on racism in Britain and in particular institutionalised racism Dr Krause focuses in this important book on the practice of family therapy and draws on her expertise as both anthropologist and systemic family psychotherapist to formulate a cogent critical evaluation of the field At the heart of her book furnished with very useful clinical material is a concern to identify the necessary conditions for an anti discriminatory non ethnocentric and ethical way of working cross culturally In illuminating the way in which underlying and frequently unexamined assumptions serve to perpetuate institutionally discriminatory outcomes the author outlines a model for the development of a culturally sensitised questioning and self reflexive practice This book will serve as an individual reference point for all those concerned to avoid and eliminate institutional discrimination Coffee House Poet Robert A. Bofman, 2010-04 This is a book about life written in the form of poetry and song It is all about our every day thoughts emotions desires and struggles as seen through the eyes of one man who struggles to find the meaning of his own existence Each experience is a true and real life experience Your heart will be touched and your mind will be intrigued as you will be able to relate these experiences to your own life
