Son Of The Salmon People:

The Son-in-law Test in North American Indian Mythology Anna Ruth Haworth,1926 The Bella Coola Indians
Thomas Forsyth McIlwraith,1992-01-01 A comprehensive guide to Nuxalk culture and a central document in the study of ethnographic methods The North American Indian. Volume 10 - The Kwakiutl. ~ Paperbound , American Indians in the Marketplace Brian C. Hosmer,1999 Although it is usually assumed that Native Americans have lost their cultural identity through modernization some peoples have proved otherwise Brian Hosmer explores what happened when cultural identity and economic opportunity converged among two Native American communities that used community based industries to both generate income and sustain their cultures Comparing a lumber business run by the Menominees of Wisconsin and a salmon cannery established by British Columbian and Alaskan Tsimshian communities known as Metlakatla Hosmer reveals how each tribe responded to market and political forces over fifty years Hosmer s innovative ethnohistory recounts how these Indians used the marketplace to maintain their distinctiveness to a far greater extent than those who became wage earners in the white man s world Hosmer shows that by selectively incorporating elements of American capitalism into their cultural lives the Menominees and Metlakatlans came to view modernization less as a threat to their tribal life than as a means for maintaining their independence These tribes embraced the same market accused of hastening the demise of native societies and became comparatively successful in American terms even as they both honored fundamental values and forged new cultural identities Over time these peoples came to understand how the market worked recognized that the broader economy operated according to market principles and learned how to adjust to it Hosmer reveals how their strategies of purposeful modernization brought relative economic independence and sometimes the respect and cooperation of local and federal governments how it helped chart a middle course between unchecked individuality and a communal ethos that might stifle economic development and how economic development and cultural values ultimately affected one another American Indians in the Marketplace is a story of adaptation that acknowledges the hardship and suffering common to most Indian white contact while emphasizing the benefits of selective modernization accompanied by a constant re invention of tradition It questions the victim thesis of Native American history and shows that native peoples can meet the challenges of surviving in the larger world Tsawalk E. Richard Atleo,2024-03-20 Western philosophy has long held scientific rationalism in a place of honour Reason that particularly exalted human quality has become steadily distanced from the metaphysical aspects of existence such as spirit faith and intuition In Tsawalk hereditary chief Umeek introduces us to an alternative indigenous worldview an ontology drawn from the Nuuchah Nulth origin stories Umeek develops a theory of Tsawalk meaning one that views the nature of existence as an integrated and orderly whole and thereby recognizes the intrinsic relationship between the physical and spiritual By retelling and analyzing the origin stories of Son of Raven and Son of Mucus Umeek demonstrates how Tsawalk provides a viable theoretical alternative that both complements and expands the view of reality presented by Western science Tsawalk he argues allows both Western and indigenous views to be combined in order to advance our understanding of the universe In addition he shows how various fundamental aspects of Nuuchahnulth society are based upon Tsawalk and what implications it has today for both Native and non Native peoples A valuable contribution to Native studies anthropology and philosophy Tsawalk offers a revitalizing and thoughtful complement to Western scientific worldviews NIRV, Free on the Inside Bible, Large Print, Paperback Zondervan,2017-02-07

Hostetler,2023-10-31 Will we choose life for our children and the future of our planet Everywhere we look we see signs that all is not right with our earth Extreme weather patterns wreak havoc Pollutants sour soils and waterways Fires and floods ravage land and communities Climate change is just a symptom of a larger ecological crisis If we want change the solutions can't come through the same systems that created those problems Ecological justice requires us to challenge our assumptions about creation and our relationship to it It requires decolonization We must turn to the leadership of Indigenous communities who struggle for all life as land and water protectors and we must call on people of faith to join them to confront climate change and resource extraction and choose life for our children and the future of our planet This book offers hope for a better future alongside concrete actions for joining with Indigenous Peoples to protect life and negotiate with decision makers for sustainable change that follows Jesus Children's Book Review Index 1981 Cumulative Gary C.
