Mattheier, Peter Trudgill, 2008-07-14 No detailed description available for SOCIOLINGUISTICS AMMON 3 TLBD HSK 3 3 2A E BOOK The Vanishing Languages of the Pacific Rim Osahito Miyaoaka, Osamu Sakiyama, Michael E. Krauss, 2007-04-12 Publisher description Reading Acquisition of Chinese as a Second/Foreign Language, Volume II Linjun Zhang, Zaizhu Han, Yang Zhang, 2023-10-26 Space in Languages of China Dan Xu, 2008-08-02 Space has long been a popular topic in linguistic research Numerous books on the subject have been published over the past decade However none of these books were based on linguistic data from Chinese and expressions of space in Chinese have been largely neglected in past research In this volume not only Mandarin Chinese the standard language is investigated several other dialects as well as a minority language of China and Chinese Sign Language are studied Cross linguistic synchronic and diachronic approaches are used to investigate phenomena related to space The authors of this book present different points of view on the expression of space in language and related theoretical issues As the contributing scholars argue Chinese shares many common features with other languages but also presents some particular properties Space is a topic that is both classical and modern of enduring interest These studies of space give insight into not only general linguistics but also other domains such as anthropology and psychology The Cambridge Handbook of Language Contact Salikoko S. Mufwene, Anna María Escobar, 2022-06-30 Language contact the linguistic and social outcomes of two or more languages coming into contact with each other has been pervasive in human history However where histories of language contact are comparable experiences of migrant populations have been only similar not identical Given this how does language contact work With contributions from an international team of scholars this Handbook the first in a two volume set delves into this question from multiple perspectives and provides state of the art research on population movement and language contact and change It begins with an overview of how language contact as a research area has evolved since the late 19th century The chapters then cover various processes and theoretical issues associated with population movement and language contact worldwide It is essential reading for anybody interested in the dynamics of social interactions in diverse contact settings and how the changing ecologies influence the linguistic outcomes

Language Policy in the People's Republic of China Minglang Zhou, Hongkai Sun, 2006-04-11 Language matters in China It is about power identity opportunities and above all passion and nationalism During the past five decades China's language engineering projects transformed its linguistic landscape affecting over one billion people's lives including both the majority and minority populations The Han majority have been juggling between their home vernaculars and the official speech Putonghua a speech of no native speakers and reading their way through a labyrinth of the traditional simplified and Pinyin Roman scripts Moreover the various minority groups have been struggling between their native languages and Chinese maintaining the former for their heritages and identities and learning the latter for quality education and socioeconomic advancement The contributors of this volume provide the first comprehensive scrutiny of this sweeping linguistic revolution from three unique perspectives First outside scholars critically question the parities between constitutional rights and actual practices and between policies and outcomes Second inside policy practitioners review their own project involvements and inside politics pondering over missteps undergoing soul searching and theorizing their personal experiences Third scholars of minority origin give inside views of policy implementations and challenges in their home communities The volume sheds light on the complexity of language policy making and implementing as well as on the politics and ideology of language in contemporary China

Teaching and Learning Chinese as a Foreign or Second Language: The Educational Psychology Perspective Yang Frank Gong, Chun Lai, Jinghe Han, Chan Lu, Sihui Echo Ke, 2024-02-21 Over the past two decades Chinese as a foreign or second language CFL CSL has been increasingly taught and learnt as an important language both within and outside China Studies in the field have attempted to address deep seated tensions between existing educational ideologies concepts strategies and approaches and student learning process and performance and between existent teaching methods and techniques and the globalization of Chinese language education
