

A black and white photograph of a wooden ladder leaning against a sand dune. The ladder is made of rough, weathered wood and has several rungs. It is positioned on the left side of the frame, leaning against the dune. The dune is a large, smooth mound of sand that stretches across the middle ground. In the background, there is another sand dune and a sky filled with scattered clouds. The overall mood is contemplative and serene.

Speaking A Silence:

Speaking of Silence Dane Ericson, 2006 Cultures in Conversation Donal Carbaugh, 2014-04-04 Cultures in Conversation introduces readers to the ethnographic study of intercultural and social interactions through the analysis of conversations in which various cultural orientations are operating Author Donal Carbaugh presents his original research on conversation practices in England Finland Russia Blackfeet County and the United States demonstrating how each is distinctive in its communication codes particularly in its use of symbolic meanings forms of interaction norms and motivational themes Examining conversation in this way demonstrates how cultural lives are active in conversations and shows how conversation is a principal medium for the coding of selves social relationships and societies Representing 20 years of research this volume offers unique insights into the ways social interactions not only gain shape from but also are formative of cultures It makes a significant contribution to communication scholarship and will be illuminating reading in courses focusing on cultural communication language and social interaction intercultural pragmatics and linguistics

Between Speaking and Silence Mary M. Reda, 2010-01-01 Explores the question of student silence from students perspectives and challenges the conventional wisdom about silent students Auden's O Andrew W. Hass, 2013-11-01 Explores the rise of the idea of nothing in Western modernity and how its figuration is transforming and offering new possibilities In this groundbreaking interdisciplinary history of ideas Andrew W Hass explores the ascendancy of the concept of nothing into late modernity He argues that the rise of the reality of nothing in religion philosophy and literature has taken place only against the decline of the concept of One a shift from a sovereign understanding of the One unity universality toward the figure of the O a cipher figure that as nonentity is nevertheless determinant of other realities The figuring of this O culminates in a proliferation of literary expressions of nothingness void and absence from 1940 to 1960 but by century s end this movement has shifted from linear progression to mutation whereby religion theology philosophy literature and other critical modes of thought such as feminism merge into a shared circular activity The writer W H Auden lends his name to this O his long poetic work The Sea and the Mirror an exemplary manifestation of its implications Hass examines this work along with that of a host of writers philosophers and theologians to trace the revolutionary hermeneutics and creative space of the O and to provide the reasoning of why nothing is now such a powerful force in the imagination of the twenty first century and of how it might move us through and beyond our turbulent times Conversations of Curriculum Reform Kathryn M. Benson, 2006 Textbook Enforcing Normalcy Lennard J. Davis, 2014-08-19 In this highly original study of the cultural assumptions governing our conception of people with disabilities Lennard J Davis argues forcefully against ableist discourse and for a complete recasting of the category of disability itself Enforcing Normalcy surveys the emergence of a cluster of concepts around the term normal as these matured in western Europe and the United States over the past 250 years Linking such notions to the concurrent emergence of discourses about the nation Davis shows how the modern nation state constructed its identity on the backs not only of colonized subjects but of its physically disabled minority In a fascinating chapter on contemporary cultural theory Davis explores the pitfalls of privileging the figure of sight in conceptualizing the nature of textuality And in a treatment of nudes and fragmented bodies in Western art he shows how the ideal of physical wholeness is both demanded and denied in the classical aesthetics of representation Enforcing Normalcy redraws the boundaries of political and cultural discourse By insisting that disability be added to the familiar triad of race class and gender the book challenges progressives to expand the limits of their thinking about human oppression

Thought as Experience in Bataille, Cioran, and Rosset Joseph Acquisto, 2024-06-13 Examines how postwar French writers constitute the thinking subject and reshape its relation to the external social world Joseph Acquisto analyzes the writings of three thinkers during and shortly after the Second World War who address the question of what it means to think and what it means to constitute oneself as a thinking subject at a time that seems to come after everything with the ruins of attacked cities echoing the remains of a philosophical tradition that was confident in its establishment of human beings as rational of reason leading to progress and of both the self and the world as knowable What Georges Bataille calls inner experience and Emil Cioran labels thinking against oneself is something akin to a drama not a mere representation of the self in relation to the world but a process of remapping the relation of subject to object of thought dialectically Acquisto argues that both writers adopt an anti systematic approach to thinking that implicates fragmentary writing as a way of turning answers about subject object relations into questions Acquisto contends that this stands in contrast to the approach of Clement Rosset whose affirmation of the inaccessibility of the real leads to an anti intellectual grace filled affirmation of life as it is given under the guise of what he calls the tragic Bringing together thinkers that have seldom been discussed in a comparative light Thought as Experience in Bataille Cioran and Rosset examines the affective dimensions of thought as experience and considers the political stakes of postwar thought as out of order with the world from which it springs

The Taoist Pedagogy of Pathmarks Jie Yu, 2018-10-28 Based on the intertwined complex conversations among Heidegger Dewey and Lao Tzu this book explores the possibilities of the Taoist Pedagogy of Pathmarks as a clearing between truth and untruth responding to the spiritual call of Tao as inaction and teaching as releasement In this book Yu provides a critical exploration of the rich dynamics in the direct conversations among the three great thinkers of east and west highlighting the implications of their ideas for education throughout As more educational researchers teacher educators and teachers recognize the limitations of didactic teaching as telling the author brings an alternate pathway to light

Security in a Small Nation Andrew W. Neal, 2017-03-15 The 2014 Referendum on Scottish independence sparked debate on every dimension of modern statehood Levels of public interest and engagement were unprecedented as demonstrated by record breaking voter turnout Yet aside from Trident the issue of security was relatively neglected in the campaigns and there remains a lack of literature on the topic In this volume Andrew Neal has collated a variety of interdisciplinary perspectives on security and constitutional change in Scotland and the UK including writing from experts in foreign policy analysis intelligence studies parliamentary studies and journalism Security in a Small Nation provides an illuminating analysis of the politics of security Its authors reflect on a number of related issues including international comparisons alliances regional cooperation terrorism intelligence sharing democratic oversight and media coverage It has a particular focus on what security means for small states and democratic politics The book draws on current debates about the extent of intelligence powers and their implications for accountability privacy and human rights It examines the foreign and security policy of other small states through the prism of Scottish independence providing unique insight into the bureaucratic and political processes associated with multi level security governance These contributions provide a detailed picture of the changing landscape of security including the role of diverse and decentralised agencies and new security interdependencies within and between states The analysis presented in this book will inform ongoing constitutional debates in the UK and the study of other secessionist movements around the world Security in a Small Nation is essential reading for any follower of UK and Scottish politics and those with an interest in security and nationhood on a global scale
