Speaking Parables A Homiletic Guide:

Speaking Parables David Buttrick, 2000-01-01 David Buttrick provides an introduction to the parables with a discussion of particular homiletical issues preachers face in interpreting parables Speaking Parables includes commentary on thirty three different parables with suggestions for preaching each one Preaching Parables to Postmoderns Brian Stiller, 2005-01-01 Preachers in their call to preach the Scriptures are not only charged with the responsibility of speaking its truth but of speaking in such a way that people of this age and culture understand To do this the preacher builds a bridge between today's people and the gospel of both testaments For some this task is more difficult than for others Preaching to those living in an inner city housing project is far removed from an outpost mission in the two thirds world Each community has its own way of thinking and attaches different values to symbols of its own making For those called preach to a generation raised on MTV and late night comedians or those rooted in various economic cultures from government sponsored jobs overseen by union bosses to entrepreneurial dot com companies or generations stretching from high school students to freedom fifty fivers the task is enormous When one adds to that the complexity of a radical shift in underlying intellectual and cultural assumptions the task of preaching becomes even more complicated Preaching the Parables Craig L. Blomberg, 2004-07 A guide to preaching the parables that shows how to first interpret the parables then proclaim their significance Matthew's Gospel and Judaism in the Late First Century C.E. Anthony O Ewherido, 2006 Following a thorough examination of the structure language and argument of Matthew's discourse on parables Anthony O Ewherido underscores its primary relevance to the ongoing discussion on the social context of Matthew's Gospel The convincing analysis of the textual evidence and study of some social and historical trends in Christianity and Judaism in the post 70 C E era inform Ewherido's conclusion that at the time the Gospel was written to its predominantly Jewish Christian community that community had parted ways with Judaism and stood at an ideologically irreconcilable distance from the synagogue across the street Reading Jesus' Parables with Dao De Jing Yung Suk Kim, 2018-07-10 Dao De Jing is an ancient wisdom book purportedly written by Laozi who flourished in the sixth century BCE according to the Chinese tradition It is comprised of eighty one short poems of which the source is diverse ranging from personal life to communal and political life It uses abundant metaphors taken from nature such as water dust river wood and valley Laozi reminds his readers to rethink their worldview and purpose of life Parables of Jesus also are stories about life ranging from personal identity to social justice Laozi and Jesus lived in different places at different times Yet they share a passion and vision to make a better world full of mercy justice and peace Laozi asks his audience to appreciate the power of smallness in their perspectives Likewise in the Mustard Seed Jesus also helps his audience to see the potential of a small seed that may grow miraculously to several feet tall This book reads Jesus parables from the perspective of the Dao De Jing There is a new translation of the Dao De Jing in the Appendix The Art of Parables Charles McCollough, 2008 Without question the parables of Jesus are the most loved and most used texts in the entire New Testament a blessing opportunity and challenge to preachers study groups and congregations alike They are the most loved because as word pictures they are immediately accessible We can imagine the situations they describe and wonder how they apply to our own lives The parables also bring us as near to Jesus as we can get Biblical scholars agree that the parables are the most authentic words of Jesus available to us and we value them for that reason At the same time the parables present many challenges The parables appear more than 30 times in the Revised Common Lectionary Ministers are called to preach the parables over and over again It s not easy to approach the parables in a fresh way or to gain new insights from them when we hear or preach them so often Which is why The Art of Parables by Charles McCollough is such an indispensable resource A theologian and artist McCollough knows the parables intimately and offers a unique two pronged approach to each of the 31 parables contained in the New Testament First McCollough interprets each of the parables through sculpture Seeing and approaching the parables visually through art sculpture opens up new levels of understanding Second McCollough takes full account of the social economic and political context in which the parables were told with often surprising and challenging results For example the Good Samaritan and the Prodigal Son parables have been used in endless ways to refer to compassionate care of the stranger and to forgiveness of wayward children But are these the meanings Jesus intended Not necessarily says McCollough This illustrated book and the accompanying CD of images for projection will be an invaluable resource to anyone who wants to explore the ethical and social justice issues contained in the parables of Jesus in a unique way that honours the contribution of the arts

Distance in Preaching Michael Brothers,2014-09-22 Based on several years of teaching and careful observation in preaching classes this book by Michael Brothers explores the benefits of distance in preaching and listening to sermons Having noticed that sermon listeners generally want to be given room for their own interpretations and experiences Brothers argues that critical and aesthetic distance as a hermeneutical tool is vital to hearing the gospel today and should be intentionally employed in sermon construction and delivery He explains this distance in the field of homiletics equips teachers and students of preaching to evaluate the function of distance in sermons and encourages preachers to practice the use of distance in their preaching

Stewards of the Story James Earl Massey,2006-01-01 In this insightful study James Earl Massey offers an expanded version of the Twelfth Annual William E Conger Jr Lectures on Biblical Preaching that he delivered at Beeson Divinity School in February 2004 Through a unique collection of informative lectures and illustrative sermons the highly esteemed teacher and preacher considers four dimensions of the preacher as steward of the gospel story Pastors will warmly welcome this book as it provides them with both practical guidance and insight about their identity as preachers

The Parables of Jesus the Galilean Ernest van Eck,2016-08-09 Who do we meet in the stories Jesus told In The Parables of Jesus the Galilean Stories of a Social Prophet a selection of the parables of Jesus is read using a social scientific approach The interest of the author is not the parables in their literary contexts but rather the parables as Jesus told them in a first century Jewish Galilean sociopolitical religious and economic setting Therefore this volume is part of the material turn in parable research and offers a reading of the parables that pays special attention to Mediterranean anthropology by stressing key first century Mediterranean values Where applicable available papyri that may be relevant in understanding the parables of Jesus from a fresh perspective are used to assemble solid ancient comparanda for the practices and social realities that the parables presuppose The picture of Jesus that emerges from these readings is that of a social prophet The parables of Jesus as symbols of social transformation envisioned a transformed and alternative world This world for Jesus was the kingdom of God
