Speaking Your Mind Oral Presentation And Seminar Skills Speak Write Series:

Speaking Your Mind Rebecca Stott, Tory Young, Cordelia Bryan, 2001 This is the last of four books which is designed to demystify the processes of academic writing through careful explanation and a series of practical and engaging exercises A guide to further reading is included

Your MA in Theology Zoe Bennett, 2014-02-04 Your MA in Theology addresses a range of study skills from the basic tools of reading writing and reflection to the complex issues of handling tradition and experience and coping as an international student

How to Get a First Thomas Dixon, 2004-08-05 In this informative guide Thomas Dixon argues that you do not have to be a genius to get a first at university He sets out to demystify first class degrees in the arts humanities and social sciences clearly articulating the difference between the excellent and the merely competent in undergraduate work This concise no nonsense guidebook will give prospective and current students advice on teaching and learning styles that prevail in university and on how to manage their two most important resources their time and their lecturers In an accessible and entertaining style the author looks at subjects such as making the transition from school to university developing transferable skills making use of lectures and seminars using libraries and the Internet note taking essays seminars and presentations common mistakes to avoid writing with clarity and style revision and examinations Illustrated with many examples from a range of academic disciplines How to Get a First is an all purpose guide to success in academic life Visit the companion website www.getafirst.com

Studying English Literature Tory Young, 2008-05-22 Studying English Literature is a unique guide for undergraduates beginning to study the discipline of literature and those who are thinking of doing so Unlike books that provide a survey of literary history or non subject specific manuals that offer rigid guidelines on how to write essays Studying English Literature invites students to engage with the subject's history and theory whilst at the same time offering information about reading researching and writing about literature within the context of a university The book is practical yet not patronizing for example whilst the discussion of plagiarism provides clear guidelines on how not to commit this offence it also considers the difficulties students experience finding their own voice when writing and provokes reflection on the value of originality and the concepts of adaptation appropriation and intertextuality in literature Above all the book prizes the idea of argument rather than insisting upon formulaic essay plans and gives many ways of finding something to say as you read and when you write in chapters on Reading Argument Essays Sentences and References

Teaching Academic Writing in UK Higher Education Lisa Ganobcsik-Williams, 2017-09-16 Academic Writing is emerging as a distinct subject for teaching and research in higher education in the UK and elsewhere Teaching Academic Writing in UK Higher Education introduces this growing field and provides a resource for university teachers researchers and administrators interested in developing students writing
