

The image features a dark, textured background, possibly a floor or a wall, with a bright, circular spotlight illuminating the center. The spotlight creates a strong contrast, casting a long, soft shadow. The title "THE UNCOVERED TRUTH" is written in a bold, metallic, 3D font, centered within the spotlight. The letters have a brushed metal texture and a slight glow. The word "THE" is on the top line, "UNCOVERED" is on the middle line, and "TRUTH" is on the bottom line. The overall mood is mysterious and dramatic.

Once More, With Feeling Sara Higginbotham, 2018-08-21. How do you explain green mold in your hair? Would there be another way to handle a playground encounter at the grand old age of eight? How do you get even with a bully that breaks your best and only doll? The author is willing to give you all the answers to these questions and many more, all of which were experienced by her in the early days of growing up in West Virginia. There is a lesson in every chapter, sometimes humorous, often heart wrenching, but there is a beautiful memory in every one of them. Once More With Feeling is the true account of a youngster entering life in a small town in the mountains surrounded by wonderful, different and always interesting people. It is the desire of the author to share this special era with her readers with the hope that it will give them pleasure.

Language Teacher Identity Silvia Melo-Pfeifer, Vander Tavares, 2024-02-06. The first volume to focus on race, ethnicity and accent as elements of language teacher identity, a valuable guide for in-service teachers and teachers in training. Language Teacher Identity presents a groundbreaking critical examination of how ideologies of race, ethnicity, accent and immigration status impact perceptions of plurilingual teachers. Bringing together contributions by an international panel of established and emerging scholars, this important work of scholarship addresses issues related to native speakerism, monolingualism, racism, competence, authenticity and legitimacy while examining their role in the construction of professional identity. With an intersectional and holistic approach, the authors draw upon case studies of practical teacher experiences from Brazil, Canada, Germany, Norway, Mongolia, Pakistan and the United States to provide teachers with real-world insights on responding to the assumptions, biases and prejudices that students, student teachers and teachers may bring into the classroom. Topics include the impact of policies and ideologies on teacher identity development, the intersection between L2 teacher identity and teacher emotion research, awareness of ethnic accent, bullying and the use of transraciolinguistic approaches in the classroom. This unique new work provides a broad overview of the different types of challenges language teachers face in their careers. Focuses on race, ethnicity, plurilingualism and accent as fundamental elements of a language teacher's identity. Discusses the sensitive political and social factors that complicate the role of a language teacher in the classroom. Covers the teaching of a wide range of languages including English, Japanese, Portuguese, French, Spanish and Norwegian. Addresses key issues and significant gaps in contemporary research on language teacher education, including the experiences of teachers of two or more languages. Employing a variety of methodological and theoretical approaches, Language Teacher Identity is a forward-looking look at an exciting area of research and theory in language teacher education and training. It is essential reading for students training to become language teachers, in-service teachers and for students.
