

“Islamic Ten Commandments have a central place in Islamic teaching and were often emphasized in the Prophet Mohammed’s sayings. The most significant part of the Islamic Ten Commandments, that set them apart from the other Ten Commandments, is the emphasis on business conduct and day-to-day dealing”.

Safeguarding the Stranger Jayme R. Reaves, 2016-07-13 What are the resources and teachings in Judaism Christianity and Islam that take hospitality and its call to provide protective hospitality seriously enough to inform shared action and belief on behalf of the threatened other This book argues that protective hospitality and its faith based foundations as seen in the Abrahamic traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam merit greater theological attention and that the practice of protective hospitality in Christianity can be enhanced by better understandings of Judaism s and Islam s practices of hospitality namely their codes and etiquettes related to honor Safeguarding the Stranger draws especially on two currents in contemporary Christian theologies 1 a contextual and political theological approach informed by liberation and feminist theologies and 2 a cooperative and complementary theological approach informed by interreligious Abrahamic and hospitable approaches to dialogue This book is unique in that it seeks to contribute to academic debates within theology and religious dialogue as well as to discussions within the fields of peace studies and conflict resolution on the positive role that religions might play in contexts of conflict
