Migration, Diaspora and Identity Georgina Tsolidis, 2013-10-07 Framed in relation to diaspora this collection engages with the subject of how cultural difference is lived and how complex and shifting identities shape and respond to spatial politics of belonging Diaspora is understood in a variety of ways which makes this an eclectic collection of papers Authors use various theoretical frameworks to explore diverse groups of people with a variety of experiences in a wide range of settings They are making sense of the experiences of women and men from a range of ethnic backgrounds negotiating identities through family work and education The micro dynamics of the everyday offer an evocative bottom up means of understanding the tensions implicit in living multiple belongings The common thread for the collection comes from the glimpses these authors provide into the remaking of our globalized world The aim is to shed light on racism dislocation and alienation on the one hand and on the other hand to consider how the complex power relations within the everyday mediate a sense of resistance and hope The papers are arranged around four themes 1 Multiple Belongings 2 Representing a Way of Being 3 Sexualised Identifications and 4 Marriage and Family can be used to comment on multilingualism South Asian Diaspora Narratives Amit Sarwal, 2017-05-03 This book analyses the metaphysical and poetical notions and the processes of rooting into a culture and routing out of a culture in the context of South Asian diaspora in Australia These diasporic narratives are often characterised by bifurcated and dislocated identities that exist in a liminal space in between two identities two cultures and two histories Yet home remains through acts of imagination remembering and re creation an important reference point The author argues that a clearer notion of politics of location is required to distinguish between the different kinds of dislocation the immigrants suffer both psychologically and sociologically The diaspora in Australia is an under studied topic and this book fills a lacuna in South Asian diaspora studies by analysing and calling upon a wide range of works in this field from historical anthropological sociological cultural and literary studies Bibliographic Index , 2002 Routledge Handbook of the South Asian Diaspora Joya
