South Carolina Women Idella Bodie, 1978 Biographical sketches of prominent women in the history of South Carolina from colonial times to the present      Wil Lou Gray Mary Macdonald Ogden, 2015-12-30 In Wil Lou Gray The Making of a Southern Progressive from New South to New Deal Mary Macdonald Ogden examines the first fifty years of the life and work of South Carolina's Wil Lou Gray 1883-1984 an uncompromising advocate of public and private programs to improve education health citizen participation and culture in the Palmetto State Motivated by the southern educational reform crusade her own excellent education and the high levels of illiteracy she observed in South Carolina Gray capitalized on the emergent field of adult education before and after World War I to battle the racism illiteracy sexism and political lethargy commonplace in her native state As state superintendent of adult schools from 1919 to 1946 one of only two such superintendents in the nation and through opportunity schools adult night schools pilgrimages and media campaigns all of which she pioneered Gray transformed South Carolina's anti illiteracy campaign from a plan of eradication to a comprehensive program of adult education Ogden's biography reveals how Gray successfully secured small but meaningful advances for both black and white adults in the face of harsh economic conditions pervasive white supremacy attitudes and racial violence Gray's socially progressive politics brought change in the first decades of the twentieth century Gray was a refined sophisticated upper class South Carolinian who played Canasta loved tomato aspic and served meals at the South Carolina Opportunity School on china with cloth napkins She was also a lifelong Democrat a passionate supporter of equality of opportunity a masterful politician a workaholic and in her last years a vociferous supporter of government programs such as Medicare and nonprofits such as Planned Parenthood She had a remarkable grasp of the issues that plagued her state and with deep faith in the power of government to foster social justice developed innovative ways to address those problems despite real financial political and social barriers to progress Her life is an example of how one person with bravery tenacity and faith in humanity can grasp the power of government to improve society      A Hunt for Life's Extras Idella Bodie, 2000-11-13 The late Archibald Hamilton Rutledge was highly respected for his accomplishments as a poet philosopher educator writer outdoorsman and conservationist He is among the most revered South Carolinians of the twentieth century and served as the state's first Poet Laureate This biography traces the life of this talented man from his childhood to his position as a nationally acclaimed outdoors writer inspirational writer and poet and on to his retirement to his beloved boyhood home Hampton Plantation The works of Archibald Rutledge have been read by millions and universally praised for their narration inspiration lucidity and classic simplicity      Madness Rules the Hour Paul Starobin, 2017-04-11 From Lincoln's election to secession from the Union this compelling history explains how South Carolina was swept into a cultural crisis at the heart of the Civil War The tea has been thrown overboard the revolution of 1860 has been initiated Charleston Mercury November 8 1860 In 1860 Charleston South Carolina embodied the combustible spirit of the South No city was more ferverently attached to slavery and no city was seen by the North as a greater threat to the bonds barely holding together the Union And so with Abraham Lincoln s election looming Charleston s leaders faced a climactic decision they could submit to abolition or they could drive South Carolina out of the Union and hope that the rest of the South would follow In Madness Rules the Hour Paul Starobin tells the story of how Charleston succumbed to a fever for war and charts the contagion s relentless progress and bizarre turns In doing so he examines the wily propagandists the ambitious politicians the gentlemen merchants and their wives and daughters the compliant pastors and the white workingmen who waged a violent and exuberant revolution in the name of slavery and Southern independence They devoured the Mercury the incendiary newspaper run by a fanatical father and son made holy the deceased John C Calhoun and adopted Le Marseillaise as a rebellious anthem Madness Rules the Hour is a portrait of a culture in crisis and an insightful investigation into the folly that fractured the Union and started the Civil War     Dictionary of South Carolina Biography Richard N. Côté,1985 This book is a major new multi volume finding aid to tens of thousands of biographies autobiographies and biographical sketches of South Carolinians found in hundreds of volumes of individual and collective biographies local state church and family histories and periodicals Each volume is self indexing for the subjects and lists the name birth and death years primary residences primary occupations and full source references for more than 10 000 sketches of 17th through 20th century South Carolinians Separate indexes to occupations and places of residence are provided The series if continued could possibly consist of five volumes     South Carolina Women Marjorie Julian Spruill,2010-01-25 The biographical essays in this volume provide new insights into the various ways that South Carolina women asserted themselves in their state and illuminate the tension between tradition and change that defined the South from the Civil War through the Progressive Era As old rules including gender conventions that severely constrained southern women were dramatically bent if not broken these women carved out new roles for themselves and others The volume begins with a profile of Laura Towne and Ellen Murray who founded the Penn School on St Helena Island for former slaves Subsequent essays look at such women as the five Rollin sisters members of a prominent black family who became passionate advocates for women s rights during Reconstruction writer Josephine Pinckney who helped preserve African American spirituals and explored conflicts between the New and Old South in her essays and novels and Dr Matilda Evans the first African American woman licensed to practice medicine in the state Intractable racial attitudes often caused women to follow separate but parallel paths as with Louisa B Poppenheim and Marion B Wilkinson Poppenheim who was white and Wilkinson who was black were both driving forces in the women s club movement Both saw clubs as a way not only to help women and children but also to showcase these positive changes to the wider nation Yet the two women worked separately as did the white and black state federations of women s clubs Often mixing deference with daring these women helped shape their society through such avenues as education religion politics community organizing history the arts science and medicine Women in the mid and late twentieth century would build on their accomplishments      Local and Family History in South Carolina Richard N. Côté, 1981 Names of libraries are included with each title unless the item is deemed as COMMON to four or more libraries      Biographical Books, 1950-1980 R.R. Bowker Company. Department of Bibliography, 1980      Subject Catalog, 1981 Library of Congress, 1981      Guide to Reprints K G Saur Publishing, 2005-10 The established reference work Guide to Reprints has been radically reworked for this edition Bibliographical data was substantially increased where information was obtainable In addition the user friendliness of Guide to Reprints was raised to the high level of other K G Saur directories through author title cross references a subject volume a person index and a publisher index In this edition the directory lists more than 60 000 titles from more than 350 publishers
