Strategic Thinking In Tactical Times:

Strategic Thinking in Tactical Times J. DiVanna, F. Austin, 2004-03-03 The premise of the book is to provide insight into new ways through which corporations create and execute strategies It is the result of a 24 hour intensive workshop that brought together over twenty strategy practitioners from multiple industries They were asked to consider the proposition that strategy is shifting from a product of an elite group of people within the firm to a process that aggregates strategic thinking from all levels of the firm

People - The New Asset on the Balance Sheet J. DiVanna, J. Rogers, 2005-03-22 Job migration across international boundaries and jobless economic recoveries are the latest disruptions in the workplace's human equation To help policy makers employers and employees to address these issues DiVanna and Rogers propose a more rigorous approach to Human Capital They point out that the emergence of stronger measures management techniques and balance sheet valuations was a key enabler to the emergence of dynamic financial capital markets and international exchanges This book puts forth a framework for measuring managing and negotiating issues of human business value It looks at how policymakers employers and employees can achieve common ground when productivity threatens job loss or avoid the zero sum view that pits international trade against domestic employment

Building Knowledge Cultures Michael A. Peters, Tina Besley, 2006-04-24 This book develops the notion of knowledge cultures as a basis for understanding the possibilities of education and development in the age of knowledge capitalism Knowledge cultures refers to the cultural preconditions in the new production of knowledge and their basis in shared practices embodying preferred ways of doing things often developed over many generations These practices also point to the way in which cultures have different repertoires of representational and non representational forms of knowing The book discusses knowledge cultures in relation to claims for the new economy as well as cultural economy and the politics of postmodernity It focuses on national policy constructions of the knowledge economy fast knowledge and the role of the so called new pedagogy and social learning under these conditions
