Strategies Of Medieval Communal Identity Judaism Christianity And Islam:

Strategies of Medieval Communal Identity Wout Jac. van Bekkum, Paul M. Cobb, 2004 The leading theme of this collection of essays and studies is the diversity of aspects of medieval communal identity While the authors were selected for the very diversity of their interests their final papers do tend to cohere around some recurrent themes All of the studies in this volume touch upon one or more of the complex issues that lie at the heart of religious identity in the Middle Ages They do so through concrete study of the very real practices by which medieval Jews Christians and Muslims could police the perimeters of their spiritual communities The authors were especially urged to note instances where religious identity was shaped without reference to dogmas creeds or sacred law In no case are any of these papers satisfied with normative legal definitions of Jew Christian or Muslim in medieval times Sometimes small and subtle sometimes explicit direct and violent the techniques that emerge from these studies testify to the diversity of strategies of medieval communal identity over space and their changes over time

Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L. Tieszen, 2013-05-30 In Christian Identity amid Islam in Medieval Spain Charles L. Tieszen explores a small corpus of texts from medieval Spain in an effort to deduce how their authors defined their religious identity in light of Islam and in turn how they hoped their readers would distinguish themselves from the Muslims in their midst It is argued that the use of reflected self image as a tool for interpreting Christian anti Muslim polemic allows such texts to be read for the self image of their authors instead of the image of just those they attacked As such polemic becomes a set of borders authors offered to their communities helping them to successfully navigate inter religious living

Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World Charles Tieszen, 2016-02-28 One of the most common religious practices among medieval Eastern Christian communities was their devotion to venerating crosses and crucifixes Yet many of these communities existed in predominantly Islamic contexts where the practice was subject to much criticism and often resulted in accusations of idolatry How did Christians respond to these allegations Why did they advocate the preservation of a practice that was often met with confusion or even contempt To shed light onto these questions Charles Tieszen looks at every known apologetic or polemical text written between the eighth and fourteenth centuries to include a relevant discussion With sources taken from across the Mediterranean basin Egypt Syria and Palestine the result is the first in depth look at a key theological debate which lay at the heart of these communities religious identities By considering the perspectives of both Muslim and Christian authors Cross Veneration in the Medieval Islamic World also raises important questions concerning cross cultural debate and exchange and the development of Christianity and Islam in the medieval period This is an important book that will shine much needed light onto Christian Muslim relations the nature of inter faith debates and the wider issues facing the communities living across the Middle East during the medieval period

Forced Conversion in Christianity, Judaism and Islam Mercedes García-Arenal, Yonatan Glazer-Eytan, 2019-10-21 Focusing on the Iberian Peninsula but examining related European and

Mediterranean contexts as well Forced Conversion in Christianity Judaism and Islam traces how Christians Jews and Muslims grappled with the contradictory phenomenon of faith brought about by constraint and compulsion Forced conversion brought into sharp relief the tensions among the accepted notion of faith as a voluntary act the desire to maintain pure communities and the universal truth claims of radical monotheism Offering a comparative view of an important yet insufficiently studied phenomenon in the history of religions this collection of essays explores the ways in which religion and violence reshaped these three religions and the ways we understand them today The Cambridge Companion to Francis of Assisi Michael J. P. Robson, 2012 Looks at the life of Francis of Assisi and explores how his heritage influenced the apostolic activities of his followers

The Conversos and Moriscos in Late Medieval Spain and Beyond Kevin Ingram, 2021-01-18 Converso and Morisco are the terms applied to those Jews and Muslims who converted to Christianity in large numbers and usually under duress in late Medieval Spain The Converso and Morisco Studies series examines the implications of these mass conversions for the converts themselves for their heirs also referred to as Conversos and Moriscos and for Medieval and Modern Spanish culture As the essays in this collection attest the study of the Converso and Morisco phenomena is not only important for those scholars focusing on Spanish society and culture but for all academics interested in questions of identity Otherness nationalism religious intolerance and the challenges of modernity Contributors Luis F Bernab Pons Michel Boeglin Stephanie M Cavanaugh William P Childers Carlos Gilly Kevin Ingram Nicola Jennings Patrick J O Banion Francisco Javier Perea Siller Mohamed Saadan and Enrique Soria Mesa

The Christian Encounter with Muhammad Charles Tieszen, 2020-11-12 This book offers a fresh appraisal of Muhammad that considers the widest possible history of the ways in which Christians have assessed his prophethood To medieval Christian communities Muhammad the leader of a religious and political community that grew quickly and with relative success was an enigma Did God really send him as a prophet with a revelation Was the political success of the community he founded a divine validation Or were he and his followers inspired by something evil Despite their attempts modern Christians continued to be puzzled by Muhammad The Qur'an provided a framework for understanding and honouring Jesus was it possible for Christians to reciprocate with regard to Muhammad This book applies the same analysis to both medieval and modern assessments of Muhammad in order to demonstrate the continuities and disparities present in literature from the two eras

A Companion to Observant Reform in the Late Middle Ages and Beyond James Mixson, Bert Roest, 2015-06-02 The Observant Movement was a widespread effort to reform religious life across Europe It took root around 1400 and for a century and more thereafter it inspired or shaped much that became central to European religion and culture The Observants produced many of the leading religious figures of the later Middle Ages Catherine of Siena Bernardino of Siena and Savonarola in Italy Francisco Jimenez de Cisneros in Spain and in Germany Martin Luther himself This volume provides scholars with a current synthetic introduction to the Observant Movement Its essays also seek collectively to expand the horizons of our study of Observant reform and to open new avenues for future

intersection of authorized institutional policy and practical sources chronicling the lived experiences of disabled people in the Middle Ages As such they constitute an excellent analytical laboratory in which to study medieval disability in its relation to the papacy as an institution alongside the impact of official ecclesiastical judgments on disabled lives Medieval Hispanic Studies in Memory of Alan Deyermond Andrew M. Beresford, Louise M. Haywood, Julian Weiss, 2013 Professor Alan Deyermond was one of the leading British Hispanists of the last fifty years whose work had a formative influence on medieval Hispanic studies around the world Given Professor Deyermond's breadth of expertise the span of the essays is appropriately wide ranging chronologically from the thirteenth to the sixteenth century and covering lyric hagiography clerical verse narrative frontier balladry historical and codicological studies P 4 of cover A History of Islamic Societies Ira M. Lapidus, 2014-10-13 This new edition of one of the most widely used course books on Islamic civilizations around the world has been substantially revised to incorporate the new scholarship and insights of the last twenty five years Ira Lapidus history explores the beginnings and transformations of Islamic civilizations in the Middle East and details Islam's worldwide diffusion The history is divided into four parts Part I is a comprehensive account of pre Islamic late antiquity the beginnings of Islam the early Islamic empires and Islamic religious artistic legal and intellectual cultures Part II deals with the construction in the Middle East of Islamic religious communities and states to the fifteenth century Part III includes the history to the nineteenth century of Islamic North Africa and Spain the Ottoman Safavid and Mughal empires and other Islamic societies in Asia and Africa Part IV accounts for the impact of European commercial and imperial domination on Islamic societies and traces the development of the modern national state system and the simultaneous Islamic revival from the early nineteenth century to the present Shaping a Qur'anic Worldview Vanessa De Gifis, 2014-04-16 Exploring the subjectivity of the Qur'an's meaning in the world this book analyses Qur'anic referencing in Muslim political rhetoric Informed by classical Arabic Islamic rhetorical theory the author examines Arabic documents attributed to the Abbasid Caliph al Ma'mun r 813-833 whose rule coincided with the maturation of classical Islamic political thought and literary culture She demonstrates how Qur'anic referencing functions as tropological exegesis whereby verses in the Qur'an are reinterpreted through the lens of subjective experience At the same time socio-historical experiences are understood in terms of the Qur'an's moral typology which consists of interrelated polarities that define good and bad moral characters in mutual orientation Through strategic deployment of scriptural references within the logical scheme of rhetorical argument the Caliph constructs moral analogies between paradigmatic characters in the Qur'an and people in his social milieu and situates himself as moral reformer and guide in order to persuade his audiences of the necessity of the Caliphate and the religious moral imperative of obedience to his authority The Ma'mun case study is indicative of the nature and function of Qur'anic referencing across historical periods and thus contributes to broader conversations about the impact of the Qur'an on the shaping of Islamic civilization This book is an invaluable resource for those with an interest in Early Islamic History Islam and the rhetoric of contemporary Middle East regional and global Islamic politics Al-Ma'mun, the Inquisition, and the Quest for Caliphal Authority John Abdallah Nawas, 2015-11-15 The inquisition Mihnah unleashed by the seventh Abbasid caliph Abdallah al Ma mun r 813 833 has long attracted the attention of modern scholars of the intellectual political and religious history of the early Abbasid era Because this event which began in 820 and stretched through the reigns of two of al Ma mun s successors appears at a convergence of prominent currents in systematic theology rationalist thought theocratic politics and nascent trends in Shiism and Sunnism historians have seen it as the key to a wide array of puzzles and problems in early Islamic history In this incisive study John Nawas subjects the various proposed explanations of these events to a sober and searching analysis and in the process presents a new interpretation of al Ma mun s political and religious policies contextualized against the background of early Abbasid intellectual and social history Appended to the volume is a reprint edition of Walter M Patton s Ahmed ibn Hanbal and the Mihna Leiden 1897 which still has much that is useful for modern scholarship including one enormous additional benefit it contains most of the relevant passages in Arabic from the primary sources

The Poet and the World Joachim Yeshaya, Elisabeth Hollender, Naoya Katsumata, 2019-07-08 A collection of seventeen essays on pre modern Hebrew poetry in honor of Wout van Bekkum The articles in this volume all seek to examine how the religious cultural and social context in which the poet functioned impacted on and is visible either explicitly or more elliptically in their poetical oeuvre For this purposes a broad understanding of world has been accepted including both the natural world and the constructed one society culture language as well as the spiritual and emotional world History a pillar of the man made constructed world has been used to determine the boundaries from Late Antiquity to the Middle Ages and in instances where the topic connects to older traditions to Early Modern Judaism i e pre modern Hebrew and Aramaic poetry The articles in this volume in the breadth of their temporal and spatial range and their multiplicity of approaches and methodologies highlight the richness of contemporary scholarship on Hebrew poetry The volume invites the reader to engage with this astonishing body of poetry while providing a glimpse into the world of the pay anim and the cultures and societies from which they drew their inspiration and to which they made such important contributions Marginal Voices Amy I. from religious conflict between different parts of the Christian canon types of conflict the origins of conflict strategies for winning for conflict resolution and the emergence of a language of conflict For the fourth to seventh centuries case studies from Asia Minor Syria Constantinople Gaul Arabia and Egypt are presented The volume closes with examinations of the Christian and Jewish response to Islam and of Islam s response to Christianity Given the political and religious tensions in the world today this volume is well positioned to find relevance and meaning in societies still grappling with the monotheistic religions of Judaism Christianity and Islam
