Ethics and the Autonomy of Philosophy Bernard James Walker, 2014-11-06 In Ethics and the Autonomy of Philosophy Bernard Walker sets out with two objectives First Walker argues that ethics is autonomous as a discipline Oftentimes ethics books from a Christian perspective lean toward grounding ethics in theology or in biblical proof texting Walker departs from this tradition Ethics grounded in theology entails a limited scope for those doing ethics in that the Christian God must be assumed for both Christian and non Christian when at the table of ethical dialogue For the non Christian this loads the dice and shuts down ethical consensus and dialogue if not ethical truth With that said this book does not depart from Christian ethical views on such issues as the sanctity of life antiracism the death penalty the objectivity of ethics and the importance of integrating faith into ethics however Walker does so from a common denominator of philosophy rather than theology Second Walker ventures into the streets and engages the man woman on the streets approach to ethics and ethical decision making He points out the shortcomings of the ubiquitous views of the man woman on the streets viz cultural relativism skepticism and the attitude that ethics is merely a matter of personal choice

Reports of Cases Determined by the Supreme Court of the State of Missouri Missouri. Supreme Court, 1924

Deprived Innocence D. E. Johnson, 2013 It was contrived from the uncaring, insane acts of man, not only towards men but also towards the Innocence of those too young to do anything for themselves. The author was awakened from deep sleep on many wee hours of the morn to write the words you're about to read. The words are from God to man to cease the abuse of the Innocent Angels that he or pay dearly for the evil acts put upon them. Because the words were given to the author in sleep, he feels that he is being used to send a message to the world. Allow the Innocent to be just that and put an end to their corruption.

So Great Salvation Charles C. Ryrie, 1997-07-01 What is the Gospel? Confusion about the Gospel is a serious problem of tremendous magnitude. It's not just semantics; it's the eternal difference between heaven and hell. But there is Good News. Follow along in this scholarly yet readable work as Dr. Ryrie carefully explains what the Bible has to say about salvation, discussing man's hopeless state before meeting Jesus, God's grace in saving us, and our call to obedience as we walk with Him. In So Great Salvation, Dr. Ryrie also addresses many questions raised by those who hold to the lordship salvation position: Does Jesus have to be the Lord of every area of our lives before we are saved? What about backslidden Christians? What is easy believism? Join Dr. Ryrie as he studies the important topic of salvation. Discover how God's grace is all we need to enter the kingdom of heaven.

You Are Not So Smart David McRaney, 2011-10-27 An entertaining illumination of the stupid beliefs that make us feel wise based on the popular blog of the same name. Whether you're deciding which smartphone to purchase or which politician to believe, you think you are a rational being whose every decision is based on cool, detached logic. But here's the truth: You are not so smart. You're just as deluded as the rest of us, but that's okay because being deluded is part of being human. Growing out of David McRaney's popular blog You Are Not So Smart, reveals that every decision we make, every thought we contemplate, and every emotion we feel comes with a story we tell ourselves to explain them. But often these stories aren't true. Each short chapter covering topics such as Learned Helplessness, Selling Out, and the Illusion of Transparency is like a psychology course with all the boring parts taken out. Bringing together popular science and psychology with humor and wit, You Are Not So Smart is a celebration of our irrational, thoroughly human behavior.
