dispels the idea of such art as a thoughtless defacement of pristine surfaces and instead celebrates it as a contemporary and highly creative inscription upon the skin of the built environment The City as Subject Carolyn S. Loeb, 2022-02-24 In The City as Subject Carolyn S. Loeb examines distinctive bodies of public art in Berlin legal and illegal murals painted in West Berlin in the 1970s and 1980s post reunification public sculptures and images and sites from the street art scene Her careful analyses show how these developed new architectural and spatial vocabularies that drew on the city's infrastructure and daily urban experience These works challenged mainstream urban development practices and engaged with citizen activism and with a wider civic discourse about what a city can be Loeb extends this urban focus to her examination of the extensive outdoor installation of the Berlin Wall Memorial and its mandate to represent the history of the city's division She studies its surrounding neighborhoods to show that while the Memorial adopts many of the urban oriented vocabularies established by the earlier works of public art she examines it truncates the story of urban division which stretches beyond the Wall's existence Loeb suggests that by embracing more multi vocal perspectives the Memorial could encourage the kind of participatory and heterogeneous construction of the city championed by the earlier works of public art Street Art in Berlin Kai Jakob, 2024 Street art: New York - Berlin Kai Jakob, 2010 Street Art in the Middle East Sabrina de Turk, 2019-06-27 Since the 2011 Arab Spring street art has been a vehicle for political discourse in the Middle East and has generated much discussion in both the popular media and academia Yet this conversation has generalised street art and identified it as a singular form with identical styles and objectives throughout the region Street art's purpose is however defined by the socio cultural circumstances of its production Middle Eastern artists thus adopt distinctive methods in creating their individual work and responding to their individual environments Here in this new book Sabrina De Turk employs rigorous visual analysis to explore the diversity of Middle Eastern street art and uses case studies of countries as varied as Egypt Tunisia Lebanon Palestine Bahrain and Oman to illustrate how geographic specifics impact upon its function and aesthetic Her book will be of significant interest to scholars specialising in art from the Middle East and North Africa and those who bring an interdisciplinary perspective to Middle East studies Lonely Planet Berlin Andrea Schulte-Peevers, 2022-07 Lonely Planet's Berlin is your passport to the most relevant up to date advice on what to see and skip and what hidden discoveries await you Get up close to the Brandenburger Tor visit the Berlin Wall and explore the museums of Museumsinsel all with your trusted travel companion Get to the heart of Berlin and begin your journey now Inside Lonely Planet's Berlin Travel Guide Up to date information all businesses were rechecked before publication to ensure they are still open after 2020's COVID 19 outbreak NEW pull out passport size Just Landed card with wi fi ATM and transport info all you need for a smooth journey from airport to hotel Planning tools for family travellers where to go how to save money plus fun stuff just for kids What's New feature taps into cultural trends and helps you find fresh ideas and cool new areas our writers have uncovered Colour maps and images throughout Highlights and itineraries help you tailor your trip to
