Street Poetry:

The Poetry Circuit Peter B. Howarth, 2024-09-17 Live performance has changed poetry more than anything else in the last hundred years it has given poets new audiences and a new economy and it has generated new styles from Imagism to confessional to contemporary Spoken Word But the creative impact that public reading had right through the twentieth century has not been well understood Mixing close listening to archive performances with intimate histories of modernist venues and promoters The Poetry Circuit tells the story of how poets met their audience again and how the feedback loops between their voices the venues and the occasions turned poems into running dramas between poet and listener A nervous T S Eliot reveals himself to be anything but impersonal while Marianne Moore's accident prone readings become subtle ways of keeping her poems in constant re draft Robert Frost used his poems to spar with his fans and rivals while Langston Hughes wrote Ask Your Mama to expose the prejudice circulating in the room as he spoke it The Poetry Circuit also shows how the post war reading boom made new kinds of poetry involving their audience and setting in the performance such as John Ashbery's anti charismatic Poets Theatre Amiri Baraka's documentary soundtracks of the streets or the confessional readings of Allen Ginsberg which shame the listeners more than the poet Covering the first seventy years of the poetry reading The Poetry Circuit demonstrates that there never were page and stage poets the reading simply changed what every modern poet could do

Urban Street Poetry L-Boogie, Lorenzo Solomon, 2010-03 Sometimes in our lives we suffer heartaches and pains Sometimes we suffer them alone The characters are real and the events are true The burdens these characters carry are heavy Walk with me down this lonely road and know there is a way out of a negative situation Hope sacrifice and love is what these characters need Hope sacrifice and love is what these characters could have if they want it I wanted a way out of my negative lifestyle so I decided to put my experiences on paper rather than continue to live them on the streets I pray this anthology of street poetry pierce the suffering heart devour the lonely soul and vanish our bad habits Only then have I done what God has called me to do May God continue to bless you always May God continue to bless your families always Please remember this Only by the grace of God these heavy burdens that we carry will be lifted Author's e mail address l dogg71 yahoo com Author's Website www lboogie net
