Street Angels:

Street Angel Magie Dominic, 2014-07-28 Magie Dominic's first memoir The Queen of Peace Room was shortlisted for the Canadian Women's Studies Award, ForeWord magazine's Book of the Year Award and the Judy Grahn Award. Told over an eight-day period, the book captures a lifetime of turbulent memories, documenting with skill Dominic's experiences of violence, incest, and rape. But her story wasn't finished. Street Angel opens to the voice of an eleven-year-old Dominic. She's growing up in Newfoundland. Her mother suffers from terrifying nighttime hallucinations. Her father's business is about to collapse. She layers the world she hears on radio and television onto her family, speaking in paratactic prose with a point-blank delivery. She finds relief only in the glamour of Hollywood films and the majesty of Newfoundland's wilderness. Revealing her life through flashbacks, humour, and her signature self-confidence, Dominic takes readers from 1950s Newfoundland to 1960s Pittsburgh, 1970s New York, and the end of the millennium in Toronto. Capturing the long days of childhood, this book questions how important those days are in shaping who we become as we age, and time seems to speed up. With quick brush-stroke chapters, Dominic chronicles sixty years of a complex, secretive family in this story about violence, adolescence, families, and forgiveness.

A Just Church Chris Howson, 2011-02-17 What does liberation theology actually look like in 21st-century Britain? How can the Church respond faithfully to issues like war, climate change, and vast global inequalities? A fresh expression church in the centre of Bradford has explored these questions through radical forms of worship, non-violent direct action, for example, physically resisting the unjust detentions of asylum seekers, and experimenting with new ways of being community that help to build the reign of God. Church members have been arrested, come under the scrutiny of security forces, and been super-glued together at the gates of hell, aka Aldermaston Atomic Weapons Establishment. This is their story, their successes and disasters, and their modelling of a new version of the Action Reflection cycle called EARS: Education, Action, Reflection, Sustaining, aimed at helping other Christians to evolve their own way of thinking, growing, and demonstrating the relevance of Church in today's contexts.
