Miller, 2018-05-14

Experience the architecture and colorful history of the Historic Theaters of New York's Capital District as author John A. Miller charts the entertaining history For generations residents of New York's Capital District have flocked to the region's numerous theaters The history behind the venues is often more compelling than the shows presented in them John Wilkes Booth brushed with death on stage while he and Abraham Lincoln were visiting Albany The first exhibition of broadcast television was shown at Proctor's Theater in Schenectady although the invention ironically contributed to the downfall of theaters across the nation A fired manager of the Green Street Theatre seized control of the theater with a group of armed men but Albany police stormed the building and the former manager regained control Encyclopedia of Social Movement Media John D. H. Downing, John Derek Hall Downing, 2011 The entries are designed to be relatively brief with clear accessible and current information Long Time Gone Alexander Bloom, 2001-05-03 With remarkable speed the Sixties have gone from lived history to mythology They remain alive in our culture in a manner different from any previous era At the dawn of a new century we are still debating the issues that emerged during that decade still living in the conscious aftermath of its events and transformations This collection looks back at the Sixties attempting to understand the issues of the day on their own terms and to think about their meanings in today's world Alexander Bloom has gathered ten original essays each of which explores the gulf between history and myth regarding a central characteristic of the Sixties Topics covered include civil rights the student movement and the New Left the Vietnam War the antiwar movement gay rights the counterculture and the women's movement Long Time Gone dispels myths about the Sixties and constructs an accurate vision of the past
