Bright Tracks Richard Pike,2017-01-24 In the summer of 1959 the year in which most of our group were twenty one when Harold Macmillan was Prime Minister and we d never had it so good a small group from King s College Cambridge set out for a travelling holiday during the long vacation which took just over five weeks It was probably the last time before retirement we d ever enjoy so much free time In 1959 four student friends from Cambridge join a party travelling by train to Greece Their train the Tauern Express takes three days to make the journey across Europe from Ostend a long way from the convenience of international trips today Over their six weeks backpacking abroad the travellers discover a way of life very different from their own and a country struggling to emerge from the ravages of war As they make their way across Greece they take the opportunity to explore Greece s rich array of historical places of interest and meet a host of colourful characters In this fascinating re creation of their Odyssey Bright Tracks opens a time capsule into 1950s Europe and reveals attitudes of the time and adventures they will never forget Bright Tracks is a lively often humorous account of a world now lost to the modern tourist Lavishly illustrated with over 160 photographs including pictures Richard and his companions took back in 1959 it will appeal to those with an interest in Greek history and culture as well as those looking to reminisce on their own travelling days

The South as an American Problem Larry J. Griffin,Don Harrison Doyle,1995 In this volume twelve authors take a challenging new look at the South Departing from the issue that has lately preoccupied observers of the South the region s waning cultural distinctiveness the contributors instead look at the dynamics of the region s long troubled relationship with the rest of the nation What they discover allows us all to view the current state and future course of the South as well as its link to the broader culture and polity in a new light To envision the concept of the Problem South and what it means to those within and without the region six historians have joined together with a sociologist an economist two literary scholars a legal scholar and a journalist Their essays which range in subject from the South s climate to its religious fundamentalism to its great outpouring of fiction and autobiography are the products of strong and independent minds that cut across disciplines disagree among themselves blend contemporary and historical insights and confront conventional wisdom and expedient generalities Although consensus among the contributors was never the goal of this collection some common themes do suggest themselves Above all there is not only a South defined by its geography history and society but also a mythic and metaphoric South one continually refashioned by national regional discourse trends and events In addition the South has long been a mirror in which America has viewed itself The nation has sought time and again to change the region but it has also used the South to expose and modify darker impulses of American culture

Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases ,1998      Map Link Catalog ,2008      Radical Communications Michael Tsangaris,2021-11-08 Radical Communications explores unauthorized messages we see in the cities we live in and their impact on the construction of social reality Michael Tsangaris treats the city as a text and examines the political slogans graffiti and street art of Athens as complex visual signs in an alternative communication system He argues that the legitimacy aesthetic value and social acceptability of these expressions depend on the time place and social group or individual that interprets them Finally his analysis reveals the contradictory character of the contemporary city It shows a city of social inequalities cultural diversity multinational encounters of conflicts between age groups and political economic and epidemic crises a city of one dimensional thinking apathy and consumer fetishism but also a city that aspires to the dream of a better society and holds utopian promise

Asian Revitalization Katie Cummer, 2021-01-11 Adaptive reuse refers to reusing an old building for a purpose other than which it was originally built or designed This conservation approach has become increasingly popular around the world However there are few publications that focus on its application in Asia This book fills this gap by looking at both unique and shared aspects of adaptive reuse in three Asian urban centers Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Building on government policy documents and extensive field work this book contextualizes adaptive reuse in each city and reveals the impetus behind a wide range of projects from revitalization in Hong Kong commercial development in Shanghai to community building in Singapore The introductory chapter sets adaptive reuse within an international perspective noting salient differences and similarities between Asia and other parts of the world It also anchors the discussion within a regional perspective focusing on the similarities and differences between Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Each of the following four essays addresses a specific topic about adaptive reuse including its relationship to urban development and sustainability how it benefits heritage buildings and how it reveals best practices in heritage conservation in Asia The subsequent three essays one for each city supplemented with timelines set out a clear framework for understanding the city specific case studies that follow the essays Afterwards fifteen representative projects across the three cities are presented as in depth case studies The pairing of essays and case studies provides a detailed understanding of each city s approach to adaptive reuse in the twenty first century a time when the need for sustainable development solutions are at the forefront Intended for classroom use and professional readership this book will be of considerable value in Asia as well as elsewhere providing material for stimulating and worthwhile discussion Asian Revitalization is a highly practical and accessible volume on the long established conservation practice of adaptive reuse in East Asia Its focus on real life issues examples and challenges posed by revitalization programs in the region is extremely relevant to researchers and practitioners in architectural conservation urban design and urban studies Miles Glendinning University of Edinburgh Scotland This is a superb well documented and original book written by some of the best known and highly respected authors in the field of heritage conservation The carefully examined case studies illustrate a wide variety of solutions that highlight the work of some of the best minds of the next generations Alastair Kerr University of Victoria Canada This is a most interesting set of essays informative and thought provoking The best way to save any heritage building is by keeping it in beneficial use and how to achieve this in a sensitive manner is what these essays are about They should be vital reading for anyone considering an adaptive reuse project in Asia Michael Morrison Purcell UK With cultural heritage firmly ensconced in the global development agendas of the United Nations this well grounded volume draws upon the experience of Hong Kong SAR Shanghai and Singapore to demonstrate to scholars and practitioners alike how historic properties can be sustained through savvy adaptive reuse in the midst of tremendous urban redevelopment pressures Montira Horayangura Unakul UNESCO Bangkok Thailand

Homelessness, Social Exclusion and Health Fiona Cuthill, 2019-11-01 For those wishing to understand issues of homelessness social exclusion and health at a local level by framing these issues in a global context It expands notions of health by drawing on disciplines outside the fields of housing and health to better comprehend the ways that stigma identity and urban geographies shape and present homelessness

Alter-globalization in Southern Europe Eduardo Zachary Albrecht, 2017-01-28 Considering the rise of global political instability and subsequent importance of new social movements this cutting edge book examines the relationship between the alter globalization movement and political power in Italy Spain and Greece It argues that not only is the movement anti political but that it operates within an apolitical social milieu as a ritualized holding pattern for middle class youths that find themselves uncomfortably placed between a receding state structure on the one hand and a rising informal economy on the other Its ritual liminality allows adherents to act revolutionary while assuring that their middle class privileges remain intact The author considers the social ramifications of the movement at a time when Europe finds itself at a political and economic crossroads and offers specific and timely case studies from the three southern European countries

Confessions of a Dying Thief Darrell J. Steffensmeier, 2017-07-12 Recipient of the American Society of Criminology's 2006 Michael J Hindelang Award for a book published within the past three calendar years that is the most outstanding contribution to research in criminology Nominated for the 2007 Outstanding Book Award of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences Sam Goodman was a long time thief fence and quasi legitimate businessman He had a criminal career that spanned fifty years beginning in his mid teens and ending with his death when he was in his mid sixties Confessions of a Dying Thief is an in depth ethnographic study of Sam and his world based on continuous contact with him for many years on multiple interviews with his network of associates in crime and business and on a series of interviews with him shortly before he died

The book updates and greatly expands the case study of Sam Goodman's fencing activity found in Steffensmeier's award winning 1986 book The Fence In the Shadow of Two Worlds. It combines Sam's colorful narrative accounts with substantive commentary by the authors to provide a more nuanced portrayal of criminal careers, illegal enterprise and the broad landscape comprising the entity called crime. To more fully understand pathways into and out of crime as well as the social organization of illegal enterprise, the authors propose an integrative learning opportunity commitment framework that combines differential association, social learning theory and an extended conceptualization of criminal opportunity with a three fold theory of commitment to crime. This framework offers an integrated and more complete way of understanding mechanisms that underlie criminal offending and criminal careers. It also recognizes the complexity and scope of the criminal landscape and its embeddedness in the fabric of the larger society including its criminal justice system. Sam's illness and death are a sobering backdrop. More Water for My Concrete Marian Olivia Heath Griffin, 2022-10-28

MANY SITUATIONS CALL FOR INVOLVEMENT ON DIFFERENT LEVELS: FINANCES, PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT, SIBLING ISSUES, REARING OF CHILDREN AND TEENS AS WELL AS OTHER NECESSITIES OF LIFE THAT CALL FOR HELP BEYOND THE FAMILY OR COMMUNITY LEVEL. MEDFORD LEE HAD TO MAKE A CHOICE AMONG CHOICES FOR HIS CAREER, MISSION AND HIS LIFE OR FACE THE PROPHECY THAT HIS LIFE WAS IN DIRE STRAIGHTS OF DECLINE. HIS CHOICES AND DECISIONS WERE TRIPLY IMPORTANT ESPECIALLY FOR HIMSELF AS WELL AS HIS NEW GENERATIONS. EVERY GENERATION IS A CARE GIVER FOR THE NEXT. HE, ANCESTORS ARE HIS ROCKS IN THE TIME OF TROUBLE AND IN THE GOOD TIMES. Demosthenes Ian Worthington, 2002-01-04

Demosthenes is often adjudged the statesman par excellence and his oratory as some of the finest to survive from classical times. Contemporary politicians still quote him in their speeches and for some he is the supreme example of a patriot. This landmark study of this remarkable man and his long career, the first to focus on him for more than 80 years, looks at the background behind this reputation and asks whether it is truly deserved. Juan Munoz: a Place Called Abroad Juan Muñoz, Lynne Cooke, 1999.
