Write These Words Linda Stender,2024-05-15 It was a cold Michigan winter night when Linda Stender was woken from a sound sleep She felt compelled to write a message that she knew was from God She wrote as fast as she could and then suddenly there was no more to write As she scanned through the barely legible words she recognized many biblical truths partial scripture verses and promises familiar to her as a follower of Christ Linda had no idea what God wanted her to do with this message And so began an unforgettable spiritual journey that carried her through many trials encounters with those who brought clarity to the words and years of seeking God s wisdom In an uplifting recounting of the message that God placed on her heart Stender shares real life stories and experiences that bring His scriptures and words to life and encourages believers to see the depth of His love for them Through her inspirational writings she reminds believers that every new sunrise offers a chance to live life to the fullest that God created each of us to fulfill a special purpose that we can do all things through Christ who strengthens us even during the most difficult times and much more Write These Words details an inspirational message from God to uplift believers encourage spiritual growth and to trust that He is always beside us
