Publisher description Defensive Measures Lee Upton, 2005 Much of our strongest poetry that learned its lessons from early modernism lives by its defensive measures that is by means of reversing inverting and challenging in covert ways a dominant perceptual mode Defensive Measures explores strategies by which poets claim their distinctiveness and argues that poetry is the one literary form that most insistently demands a defense It demands a defense it would seem because it is perpetually in crisis not only in regard to its utility and its aesthetic appeal or the vigor of its renunciation of such an appeal but in regard to its generic existence Upton defines a generative conception of defense and examines in a new light the poetry of Lorine Niedecker Elizabeth Bishop Louise Gluck and Anne Carson In writing about Bishop Upton puts this well regarded poet in a new framework aligning her work with that of three poets whose aesthetics might be viewed as antithetical to her own

Critics and Poets on Marianne Moore Linda Leavell, Cristanne Miller, Robin G. Schulze, 2005

The first collection of essays about Marianne Moore to appear in fifteen years this book brings together the work of well established Moore scholars such as Patricia C Willis Elizabeth Gregory Cristanne Miller Linda Leavell and Robin G Schulze with that of new contributors to the field The essays in this volume written from a variety of international perspectives range across the most pressing concerns of contemporary literary study and reassert Moore s centrality to a critical and poetic field in which she has been surprisingly marginalized This book also includes poems written by contemporary poets many of them significant contributors to scholarship on Moore as a way of acknowledging the importance of Moore s verse to living writers The poems compliment the scholarly essays by demonstrating in verse the important ways in which Moore s artistic achievements have stimulated her successors

Marriage, Writing, and Romanticism Eric C. Walker,2009 Marriage Writing and Romanticism studies marriage in two sets of literary texts from the Regency decade the novels of Jane Austen who avoided marriage in her own life but seems to have written about nothing else and a set of non canonical and generally unfamiliar poems by William Wordsworth who seems never to turn to the subject of his own marriage With other Romantic writers who also figure in this study Austen and Wordsworth confronted the impossibility of writing about anything other than marriage and the imperative either to celebrate or condemn it Thanks to the latest scholarly editions of Wordsworth Walker introduces previously undiscussed material Walker reads conjugality as the compulsory ground of modern identity an Enlightenment legacy we still grapple with today and offers new perspectives on literature through the writing of Austen and Wordsworth and theories of marriage in Godwin Wollstonecraft Hegel Kierkegaard and in our time Adam Phillips and Stanley Cavell The End of the Poem Paul Muldoon,2006 A major poet Muldoon continues to outshine his contemporaries Independent on Sunday Essays and Pensées on Milton and Camus Ethan Lewis,2023-07-28 This book comprises an extensive series of analyses which span the respective oeuvres of these surprisingly paired world literary masters The poet and novelist philosopher though treated separately nevertheless prove complementary book fellows Notably both espouse and practice a vigilant attentiveness the obligation to strive for good by one s lights and to create lest history repeat and on rare occasions a duty to engage in moral contradiction for a higher cause though only after the most scrupulous reflection This book presents the ingenious artistry of both writers and further proves their contemporary relevance as well as giving readers the ability to look at the works of Milton and Camus through a new lens The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English Dominic Head,2006-01-26 This illustrated and fully updated Third Edition of The Cambridge Guide to Literature in English is the most authoritative and international survey of world literature in English available The Guide covers everything from Old English to contemporary writing from all over the English speaking world There are entries on writers from Britain and Ireland the USA Canada India Africa South Africa New Zealand the South Pacific and Australia as well as on many important poems novels literary journals and plays This new edition has been brought completely up to date with more than 280 new author entries most of them for living authors The general reader will find it fascinating to browse and to discover many new writers and works while students will find it an invaluable resource for daily use This is a unique work of reference for the twenty first century that no reader or library should be without Dismantling Glory Lorrie Goldensohn,2006-04-18 Dismantling Glory presents the most personal and powerful words ever written about the horrors of battle by the very soldiers who put their lives on the line Focusing on American and English poetry from World War I World War II and the Vietnam War Lorrie Goldensohn a poet and pacifist affirms that by and large twentieth century war poetry is fundamentally antiwar She examines the changing nature of the war lyric and takes on the literary thinking of two countries separated by their common language World War I poets such as Wilfred Owen emphasized the role of soldier as victim By World War II however English and American poets influenced by the leftist politics of W H Auden tended to indict the whole of society not just its leaders for militarism During the Vietnam War soldier poets accepted themselves as both victims and perpetrators of war s misdeeds writing a nontraditional more personally candid war poetry The book not only discusses the poetry of trench warfare but also shows how the lives of civilians women and children in particular entered a global war poetry dominated by air power invasion and occupation Goldensohn argues that World War II blurred the boundaries between battleground and home front thus bringing women and civilians into war discourse as never before She discusses the interplay of fascination and disapproval in the texts of twentieth century war and notes the way in which homage to war hero and victim contends with revulsion at war s horror and waste In addition to placing the war lyric in literary and historical context the book discusses in detail individual poets such as Wilfred Owen W H Auden Keith Douglas Randall Jarrell and a group of poets from the Vietnam War including W D Ehrhart Bruce Weigl Yusef Komunyakaa David Huddle and Doug Anderson Dismantling Glory is an original and compelling look at the way twentieth century war poetry posited new relations between masculinity and war changed and complicated the representation of war and expanded the scope of antiwar thinking A Garden from a Hundred Packets of Seed James Fenton, 2005-04-20 Shows both novice and expert gardeners alike how to think their way to creating a visually stunning garden with one hundred plants grown from seed including clinging vines colorful flowers and tropical species
