Stress Loss And Grief Understanding Their Origins And Growth Potential:

Stress, Loss, and Grief John Schneider, 1984      Grief and Bereavement Jolene Oppawsky, 2009-04-20 This book on grief and bereavement describes and recommends individual and group activities and techniques for use in therapy with children adolescents adults and couples and at the same time offers connections to models and theories for use by those clinicians and educators that want to deepen their understanding of what drives the recommended treatments Clinical vignettes demonstrate the application of the activities and techniques A bonus offered in the book is that each chapter stands alone for quick reference or use      Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity Donna Infeld, Audrey K Gordon, Bernice C

Harper, 2014-01-21 Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity captures the richness and differences that make up the United States and its culture This book shows you the complex issues arising from work with patients of a different culture and encourages research in hospices which support culturally innovative programs Many people are individually knowledgeable and culturally sensitive but few hospices have systematically planned for service to culturally diverse groups This volume identifies who is implementing organizational programs of cultural sensitivity and acknowledges the efforts of those individuals working to make hospice accessible to everyone Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity contains original research personal insights and overviews to help you understand what is being done in the field Specifically chapters discuss National Hospice Organization activities goals and recommended actions death and dying from a Native American perspective breaking barriers to hospice for African Americans a case study of the development of a culturally sensitive treatment plan in pre hospice south Texas caregiving norms surrounding dying and use of hospice services among Hispanic American elderly cultural considerations surrounding childhood bereavement among Cambodians in the U S one hospice s experience in identifying and meeting the needs of ethnic minority patients People from many different cultures are eager to share their customs practices and beliefs They want hospice providers to understand their culture and they want their community served by hospice The only book of its kind Hospice Care and Cultural Diversity is a valuable reference and source of ideas for anyone interested in the delivery of hospice services From students to experts you will find much information to help make hospice care accessible and comfortable for all groups of people      National Library of Medicine Current Catalog

National Library of Medicine (U.S.),      Death and Dying John F. Szabo, 2009-11-02 While it can be traced to the 1700s the term thanatology has gained traction in recent decades to refer to the study of death Because of the breadth of the published material and the challenges of discovery in large bibliographic databases and catalogs finding and identifying monographic material on death dying grief and bereavement can be extremely challenging Although there have been several bibliographical resources published on thanatology those titles were incomplete limited in scope or leaned heavily toward one area of the field In Death and Dying An Annotated Bibliography of the Thanatological Literature John F Szabo provides more than 2 200 citations of monographs on the science and study of death and dying Among the areas this volume addresses are the psychological philosophical and attitudinal aspects coping and dealing with the burdens of caregiving and working in the helping professions instructional and educational topics for practitioners primarily health care providers cultural differences in bereavement rituals and grief mourning and loss In addition notable titles on or relating to death and dying in popular culture death themes in literature methods of death or specific ethical policy or public issues are also included when they contribute important information to subject areas on which the book focuses This book will be helpful to students researchers academics caregivers health care professionals psychologists social workers and anyone with an interest in death dying bereavement or the care of the terminally ill      Dying to Care David Miller, 2005-06-23 Based on major multi centre research in the UK Dying to Care identifies why work stress is a problem in health care generally and in HIV health care in particular The similarities and differences between work stress experienced in general health care settings and in HIV AIDS are explored in a state of the art review of research and experience in the field to date The book has a practical focus and goes on to explore ways in which the unique stresses of patient advocacy in HIV AIDS can be addressed identifying the best approaches for management Highlighting the practical importance of a clear distinction between the burnout and work stress for design of strategies for burnout prevention the emergence of the concept of burnout is described and the general historical confusion between work stress and burnout examined This will be a key handbook for managers physicians nurses social workers health advisors and counsellors working in or alongside healthcare      Dying, Death, and Bereavement Inge Corless, RN, PhD, FAAN, Inge B. Corless, Barbara B. Germino, Mary A. Pittman, DrPH, 2006-06-02 Based on practice knowledge of the authors rather than on research this book may be particularly useful for those professionals who have not had hands on experience with people at the last stages of dying It is a resource that can be referred to time and again by those who care for people facing the final stage of life      Trusting Ourselves Karen Johnson, 1991 Definitive and comprehensive Trusting Ourselves is the only book to cover every aspect of psychology as it applies to women This groundbreaking work will empower its readers to understand and make decisions about their psychological well being and treatment in much the same way Our Bodies Ourselves redefined women s health care In a radical reversal of the usual approach to psychological care which assumes that only the professional understands the problem Johnson strongly believes that women and their values perspectives and biases have merit and that most patients understand why they re not happy with their lives Trusting this self knowledge and taking action on one s own behalf provide a foundation for all the information in this book It is time to revise psychotherapy to incorporate a woman s perspective      Crisis Intervention and Trauma Jennifer L. Hillman, 2013-11-11 Recent findings from an American Psychological Association task force suggest that one in four therapists will experience patient suicide and that one in eight will feel threatened by patient violence during their career Experts from this task force have also noted that clinicians receive virtually no formal training or coursework in crisis intervention Despite the increasing need for professional services among members of the general population current practitioners have few texts available that provide step by step detailed information about how to engage in crisis intervention and how to integrate recent empirical research findings into theory and practice This volume helps bridge this critical gap by providing a theoretically advanced yet practical guide to crisis intervention Particular attention is given to the role of violence within our culture patient suicide school and workplace violence long term sequelae of trauma clinical assessment and risk management professional boundaries and burn out domestic violence and the neurophysiology of trauma as well as the needs of typically underserved patient populations including minority group members older adults gays and lesbians and children The text also features critical reviews of controversial topics including EMDR critical incident stress debriefing recovered memories dissociative identity disorder and alternative medicine The material will appeal to psychologists social workers and therapists as well as practitioners in allied professional fields such as nursing criminal justice pastoral care and education Crisis intervention and trauma counseling Emergent issues in theory and practice represents an essential addition to any clinician s personal library

Spinal Cord Injury Martha Somers, Jade

Bender-Burnett, 2024-03-18 A comprehensive approach to complex challenges Here s the foundational knowledge skills and understanding physical therapists need to develop and implement rehabilitation programs for persons living with spinal cord injuries From coverage of pathology and the pathological repercussions through medical and rehabilitative management to patient and family education students will be prepared to be effective members of the rehabilitation team They ll also understand the importance of psychosocial adaptation and develop insights into their roles in the process

Work and Unseen Chronic Illness Margaret Vickers, 2002-09-09 In an increasingly ageing society medicine hygiene and nutrition have reduced the impact of acute and life threatening illnesses However whilst we are living longer the chance of developing or contracting a chronic illness is increasing There are a growing number of working adults affected by chronic health conditions that may be largely invisible to those around them In this book the author explores the silent problem of unseen illness at work The author employs qualitative research methods to challenge the idea that if you look well you must be well While demonstrating the effectiveness of this controversial methodology she uses it to expose the voices of a group of marginalized workplace actors who have hitherto remained unheard Stories from people with cancer multiple sclerosis endometriosis and other illnesses are interspersed with the author s reflections about life and work with illness that others cannot see These stories reflect a passage of trauma and marginalization but also foreground themes of survival

Health Workers and Aids Lydia Bennett, 1995-05-01 The Experience Of Long-Term Sobriety for Men Ages 55 Through 65 Who Are Currently Members of Alcoholics Anonymous James M. Strawbridge, 2007-11-20

Final Acts Gerry Cox, Robert Stevenson, 2016-12-05 The editors undertook this project to promote the International Conference on Death Grief and Bereavement in La Crosse Wisconsin USA Throughout its history the conference has attracted internationally known speakers This book illustrates the quality of their presentations

Invitation to Existential Psychology Bo

Jacobsen,2008-04-15 Existential psychology examines how people deal with the biggest issues such as finding meaning in life and facing death It deals with many of the same problems as psychoanalysis and analytical psychology but emphasises the view that one can understand the life of another by listening to their way of seeing existence and opening up their phenomenal world As a therapeutic approach it is recognised by the British Psychological Society and taught on a number of courses This introductory text discusses all the main contemporary theories of existential psychology and illustrates them with case examples Practical implications for clinical work are considered and comparisons with other approaches such as humanistic psychotherapy are made throughout

ELDERLY ALCOHOLISM Michael Beechem,2002-01-01 This text is the first of its kind to substantively integrate alcoholism aging and grief theories into an easy to understand format for interdisciplinary undergraduate and graduate students in the behavioral and physical sciences Written to prepare students in working with an elderly clientele the reader is provided with elder specific practice methodology derived from experiential and theoretical content Chapters 1 through 4 alert the readers to the nature of elderly alcoholism and accompanying aging theories Chapter 5 underscores the challenges faced by professionals in identifying elderly alcoholism because the symptoms often mimic other diseases namely acute dementia Chapter 6 is a comprehensive study of elder specific populations including people of color lesbians gays and the homeless Chapters 7 through 13 are essentially practice intervention chapters that include in depth discussions of such issues as strategies to encourage elderly alcoholics to enter treatment practice values and attitudes intervention strategies spirituality relapse and suicide prevention strategies Also provided are on site interviews with professional counselors at elder specific alcoholism treatment programs and summaries of these interviews appear in Chapter 13 as well as actual case studies Each chapter includes study questions the glossary of terms and a comprehensive bibliography of research specific to the issues This book will also be useful to professionals who provide services to an elderly population including nurses physicians social workers and alcoholism counselors
