Recreating Utopia in the Desert Hans A. Baer, 1988-01-01 Recreating Utopia in the Desert: A Sectarian Challenge to Modern Mormonism is the account of a millenarian sect officially known as the Aaronic Order one of the main splinter groups of the Mormon Church Their story tells us much about the social tensions particularly along class lines that have emerged in Mormonism The Aaronic Order or Levites emerged as the Mormon Church evolved from a religious utopia in the Midwest to a near nation state in the Intermountain West to finally an international theocratic corporation Drawing upon the concept of revitalization movements the Levite sect is viewed as an attempt by working class Mormons to resurrect the communitarian ideals they perceived as characteristic of earlier nineteenth century Mormonism From their beginnings in the Depression the Levites have developed a series of cooperative and communal ventures in Utah based upon the revelations of Maurice Glendenning We see in the Levites the seemingly inevitable processes of institutionalization and fission characterizing revitalization movements that survive By explaining the impetus for the development of sectarian groups such as the Levites the author offers important insights for the discussion of religious communitarianism and schismatic movements in contemporary religion
