Conrad Robert Barker, 1893      How Then Shall We Guide? Jimmy Boon-Chai Tan, 2023-05-25 There has been a marked increase of interest in the art of spiritual direction in recent decades Yet in many circles especially in ecumenical and interfaith contexts it is unclear what grounds the practice of this ancient art As a tradition s practice of spiritual direction expresses its particular theology which in turn is shaped by its unique history this work explains that ecumenical spiritual direction must make and retain the tri perspective of history theology and method that faithfully reflects each tradition s distinctives as requisite for true ecumenical enrichment The importance of this trinocular vision is brought into sharp focus through a comparative study of Ignatius of Loyola and John Calvin where points of continuity and discontinuity between the Ignatian and Reformed traditions underscore the importance of this work s thesis      The Land of Lorne Robert Williams
