Breaking Down Barriers & Becoming FREE Stephanie Thom,2014-03-07 Breaking Down Barriers and Becoming Free is a compilation of writings that reveals a deep introspection of the struggle of learning to understand yourself and learning to be known in God This book illustrates an internal manifestation of breakthrough enlightenment and freedom through the transforming power of God It is a journey that frees one from the concept of who we have been taught God is which usually derived from religion to an actual relationship and knowledge of who God actually is It also shows the tenacity that can be found in someone who truly seeks to know God and the infinite love of God that undoubtedly always seems to rescue us before we fall Who shall separate us from the love of Christ shall tribulation or distress or persecution or famine or nakedness or peril or sword For I am persuaded that neither death nor life nor angels nor principalities nor powers nor things present nor things to come nor height nor depth nor any other creature shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord

Hope for the Earth Ernst M. Conradie, 2005-05-18 Hope for the Earth explores the viability of an eschatological approach to an ecological theology spirituality and praxis in the South African context The basic intuition of such an eschatological approach is that an environmental praxis can only be empowered on the basis of an adequate understanding of Christian hope Despair in the face of environmental destruction will inevitably lead to a spirit of resignation Where then can a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth be found The author proposes a road map for eschatology based on the observation that eschatology has traditionally responded to three aspects of the human predicament namely 1 the evil effects of sin 2 the problem of finitude and transience and 3 the limitations of human power and knowledge in space Part A This analysis is used to fathom the depths of despair as a result of environmental destruction Part B The Biblical roots and subsequent history of Christian eschatology are discussed briefly Part C Recent contributions in Christian eschatology ecological theology cosmology and South African expressions of hope are explored in depth in search of a vision of hope that includes hope for the earth itself Part D The eschatological road map is used to develop a vision of hope for the earth on the basis of a theology of life life amidst death and destruction life beyond death and eternal life in the presence of God Part E Finally the implications of this vision for an ecological ethos spirituality and praxis in the South African context are indicated Part F

Gender and the Abjection of Blackness Sabine Broeck,2018-05-23 An anti racist critique of gender studies as a field In Gender and the Abjection of Blackness Sabine Broeck argues that gender studies as a mostly white field has taken insufficient account of Black contributions and that more than being an ethnocentric limitation or blind spot this has represented a structural anti Blackness in the field Engaging with the work of Black feminist authors Sylvia Wynter Hortense Spillers and Saidiya Hartman Broeck critiques a selection of canonical white gender studies texts to make this case The book discusses this problem at the core of gender theory as a practice which Broeck terms enslavism the ongoing abjection of Black life which Hartman has called the afterlife of slavery This has become manifest in the repetitive employment of the woman as slave metaphor so central to gender theory as well as in recent theoretical mutations of these anti Black politics of analogy It is the structural separation of Blackness from gender that has functioned over and over again as the scaffold enabling white women's struggles for successful recognition of equality and subjectivity in the human world as we know it This book challenges white readers to rethink their own untroubled identification with gender theory and it provides all readers with a white feminist theorist's sophisticated theoretical and self-critical scholarly account of her own reckoning with and learning in dialogue from Black feminism's critique Broeck draws on a wide range of experience to provide a frame for rethinking gender as category that can work towards something like Black freedom Most importantly Black theoretical insights in this work move beyond intervention to offer a whole new way of being and the author grapples with the new conceptual terrain she is now occupying Rinaldo Walcott author of Queer Returns Essays on Multiculturalism Diaspora and Black Studies Religion and the Philosophy of Life Gavin Flood, 2019-02-14 Religion and the Philosophy of Life considers how religion as the source of civilization transforms the fundamental bio-sociology of humans through language and the somatic exploration of religious ritual and prayer Gavin Flood offers an integrative account of the nature of the human based on what contemporary scientists tell us especially evolutionary science and social neuroscience as well as through the history of civilizations Part one contemplates fundamental questions and assumptions what the current state of knowledge is concerning life itself what the philosophical issues are in that understanding and how we can explain religion as the driving force of civilizations in the context of human development within an evolutionary perspective It also addresses the question of the emergence of religion and presents a related study of sacrifice as fundamental to religions' views about life and its transformation Part two offers a reading of religions in three civilizational blocks India China and Europe the Middle East particularly as they came to formation in the medieval period It traces the history of how these civilizations have thematised the idea of life itself Part three then takes up the idea of a life force in part three and traces the theme of the philosophy of life through to modern times On the one hand the book presents a narrative account of life itself through the history of civilizations and on the other presents an explanation of that narrative in terms of life

Don't Live But Die Well Rajat Sharma, 2023-12-03 Don t Live but Die Well boldly addresses the intricate web of challenges plaguing individuals and society at large transcending the discourse on common issues such as psychological turbulence addictions and even major crises like terrorism inequalities and wars The book dares to look beyond symptomatic solutions and instead confronts the root problem that often eludes our awareness Individuality living in division and duality IN DIVI DUALITY The narrative scrutinizes how living in division the fundamental cause of separation and boundaries gives rise to a cascade of negative tendencies

Simultaneously the relentless undulations of duality are explored portraying life as an unpredictable rollercoaster ride Don t Live but Die Well strives to terminate the temporal constraints of individuals entrenched in the cycles of division and duality coining the term in divi duality The book poignantly reveals how individuality marked by its time bound nature contributes to the perpetual cycles of existence By illustrating time as a cyclical force steering us in circles without genuine progression the work contends that individuality traps us in a relentless cycle of boundaries duality and cyclical suffering what the author terms our personal hell Hence this work attempts to end the time on individuals so their time truly gets over hence moving on from this hell without losing their structures In a departure from conventional discourse Don t Live but Die Well doesn t propagate spirituality heaven oneness or peace Instead it focuses on deconstructing the dimension of individuality which keeps us away from evolution challenging readers to reassess their fundamental understanding of existence This work is not intended to make people but break them and bring them crumbling down on their knees Unleash Your Authentic Self!
