String Quartet 2 Op 34 D Min:

Dvořák David Hurwitz, 2005-11 Unlocking the Masters The music of Antonin Dvorak defies fashion He is one of the very few composers whose works entered the international mainstream during his own lifetime and some of them have remained there ever since The pieces that historically define his international reputation however represent only a small fraction of what he actually composed They comprise just one facet of his complex and remarkably rich artistic personality This book 2 CD pack invites readers to celebrate his extraordinary achievement and experience the pleasure of getting to know more than 90 of his most important works The two full length CDs from Supraphon Records include 22 works

Lateness and Brahms Margaret Notley, 2007 Lateness and Brahms takes up the fascinating yet understudied problem of how Brahms fits into the culture of turn of the century Vienna Brahms's conspicuous and puzzling absence in previous scholarly accounts of the time and place raises important questions and as Margaret Notley demonstrates the tendency to view him in neutralized ahistorical terms has made his music seem far less interesting than it truly is In pursuit of an historical Brahms Notley focuses on the later chamber music drawing on various documents and perspectives but with particular emphasis on the relevance of Western Marxist critical traditions
