The score consists of 15 measures, divided into five systems of three measures each. The first system shows the initial entry of the instruments. The second system features a more complex texture with sixteenth-note passages in the violins and a steady eighth-note accompaniment in the cello. The third system continues the melodic development in the violins. The fourth system shows a shift in the cello's role, providing a more active bass line. The fifth system concludes the piece with a final cadence.
