

Persuasion study guide

Persuasion- an attempt to get a person to behave in a manner, or embrace a point of view related to values, attitudes, and beliefs, that he or she would not have done otherwise

Why is persuasion important?

1. The number of persuasive communication has grown a lot
 2. Persuasive messages travel quickly through different mediums
 3. Persuasion has become institutionalized
 4. Persuasive communication has become more subtle
 5. Persuasive communication is complex
- Persuasive public speaking can involve changing a person's attitude, value and beliefs

Attitude- an individual's general predisposition toward something as being good or bad, right or wrong, or negative or positive

Value- an individual's perception of the usefulness, importance, or worth of something

Belief- propositions or positions that an individual holds as true or false without positive knowledge or proof

- Beliefs are divided into 2 categories, core beliefs and dispositional beliefs
 - Core beliefs- beliefs that people have actively engaged in and created over the course of their lives (ex: religion)
 - Dispositional beliefs- beliefs that people have not actively engaged in but rather judgments that they make, based on their knowledge of related subjects, when they encounter a proposition
- Getting a person to change their core beliefs is harder than getting a person to change their dispositional beliefs
- Another type of persuasive speaking involves changing a person's behavior

Why Persuasion matters

- Studying persuasion will make you better at persuading others
- When people understand persuasion they are better consumers of information, and vet things they are told

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a brilliant and gripping novel that will keep you guessing until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
