Excerpt from Studies in Japanese Buddhism

The present volume contains the seventh course of lectures offered by New York University upon the foundation known as the Charles F Deems Lectureship of Philosophy. The University contracted April 15 1895 with the American Institute of Christian Philosophy a corporation chartered December 1 1891 that the University would maintain said lectureship for at least twenty years by securing biennially a Lecturer eminent in Science and Philosophy who should treat in not less than six lectures some one of the most important questions of Science and Philosophy with a special reference to its relation to the revealed truths of the Holy Scriptures and to the fundamental principles of Theistic Philosophy. The Lecturer was to be chosen by the University's Committee upon the Charles F Deems Lectureship which was to consist of the Chancellor of the University two members of the Faculty of Arts and Science and two members of the University Council to be named as the Council may direct. The subject for each year's lectures was to be agreed upon between this Committee and the Lecturer. The University provided free of charge a room for the lectures and at its own expense made due public announcement of the time and place of each lecture. The University was to publish in book form each series of lectures and put the same on sale with one or more reputable book firms provided this could be done without further expense than could be met by the accumulation of income over and above the expense of maintaining the lectures.
