Studies In Medieval And Renaissance History Volume VIII:

The Military Orders Volume VIII Emanuel Buttigieg, Clara Almagro Vidal, 2025-03-25 The genesis of this volume lies in the online conference held by Nottingham Trent University in 2022 This was the eighth in the series of military orders conferences organised since 1992 The conference fostered rich exchange and debate as reflected in the twenty three chapters in this book The Military Orders Volume VIII organised around five thematic axes interactions administration religion perceptions and approaches offers a broad coverage in terms of geographical variety chronological spread and thematic focus as well as a wide variety of approaches and methodologies As such this book shows the dynamism of the study of the military orders a subject of continued scholarly focus and widespread popular interest and holds the promise for many more exciting initiatives in the future This book will appeal to students and scholars alike interested in the military religious orders and the crusades as well as all those interested more generally in the medieval and early modern world Studies in medieval and renaissance history. Vol. V e vii. Edited by william m. Rosenthal, Paul E. Szarmach, 2019-12-30 Merovingian Military Organization, 481-751 Bernard S. Bachrach, 1972-05-10 Merovingian Military Organization 481 751 was first published in 1972 Minnesota Archive Editions uses digital technology to make long unavailable books once again accessible and are published unaltered from the original University of Minnesota Press editions In the area which is now France and was then Gaul military institutions fundamentally influenced the successes and failures of the Merovingian dynasty from 481 to 751 Professor Bachrach examines this period in detail studying the forms of military organization and their relation to political power Various aspects of the subject are controversial among scholars specializing in early medieval history yet this is the first book length study on the subject to be published For a hundred years scholars have equated the military institutions of Merovingian Gaul with the customs of the Franks a minority of the population who were rapidly acculturated Professor Bachrach s study shows the heterogeneous nature of Merovingian military organization composed of many institutions drawn from non Frankish people especially from the remains of the Roman Empire By dealing with all of the significant sources he demonstrates that there was frequent change in the military institutions rather than revolutionary change The fluid nature of the military organization also is seen to have had profound effects upon the exercise of political power Probably the most significant finding of the study is that Merovingian military organization like much else in Merovingian Gaul resembled Romania far more than Germania Manuscripta ,1972 Issues for Feb 1957 July 1959 include a Checklist of the Vatican manuscript codices available for consultation at the Knights of Columbus Vatican Film Library at St Louis University pts 1 8 Learning Directory ,1970 Images and Identity in Fifteenth-century Florence Patricia Lee Rubin, 2007-01-01 An exploration of ways of looking in Renaissance Florence where works of art were part of a complex process of social exchange

Renaissance Florence of endless fascination for the beauty of its art and architecture is no less intriguing for its dynamic political economic and social life In this book Patricia Lee Rubin crosses the boundaries of all these areas to arrive at an original and comprehensive view of the place of images in Florentine society The author asks an array of questions Why were works of art made Who were the artists who made them and who commissioned them How did they look and how were they looked at She demonstrates that the answers to such questions illuminate the contexts in which works of art were created and how they were valued and viewed Rubin seeks out the meeting places of meaning in churches in palaces in piazzas places of exchange where identities were taken on and transformed often with the mediation of images She concentrates on questions of vision and visibility on seeing and being seen With a blend of exceptional illustrations close analyses of sacred and secular paintings by artists including Fra Angelico Fra Filippo Lippi Filippino Lippi and Botticelli and wide ranging bibliographic essays the book shines new light on fifteenth century Florence a special place that made beauty one of its defining features

The Prison and the Factory (40th Anniversary Edition) Dario Melossi, Massimo Pavarini, 2018-01-08 This new edition of The Prison and the Factory a classic work on radical criminology includes two new long essays from the authors and a foreword from Professor Jonathan Simon UC Berkeley In the two essays Melossi and Pavarini reflect on the origins development and fortune of The Prison and the Factory in relation to the debates surrounding mass incarceration that have taken place since this book was first published 40 years ago The reputation of the original work has long been established worldwide and this updated version will be of very special interest to scholars of the criminal justice system penology and Marxist theory This seminal book examines the links between the development of capitalist political economy and changing forms of social control Melossi and Pavarini analyse the connection between the creation of penal institutions and regimes in Europe and the USA and the problems generated by the emergence of capitalist social relations They provide a thorough neo Marxist view of emergent capitalism and the penal mechanisms which are constructed to deal with the problem of labour Contemporary to but independent from the work of Michel Foucault Melossi and Pavarini combine research on the development of penal philosophies and institutions with a rigorous account of changing forms of capital accumulation focusing on the use and the problem of labour under capitalist relations
