Initiates of Theosophical Masters K. Paul Johnson, 1995-07-20 The author examines the careers of the most distinguished disciples of the Theosophical Masters He begins by examining the concept of initiation promoted by the Theosophical movement's founders. Each section investigates a separate category of initiates focusing consecutively on Hindus, Muslims, Bahais, Buddhists, and the Western female occultists. More than just a study of Theosophy, this book explores many related developments in political and religious history. Among the figures it illumines in new ways are Anagarika Dharmapala, Alexandra David Neel, George Ivanovitch Gurdjieff, and Isabelle Eberhardt. Its approach brings needed objectivity and balance to a topic too long mythologized by cultists and ignored by scholars.

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Bahá'ís in the West Peter Smith, 2004 The Baha'i Faith in Africa Anthony Lee, 2011-10-28 One million Baha'is live in Africa. This is the first academic volume to explore the history of this movement on the continent. The book discusses the diverse and contradictory American, Iranian, British, and African contributions to this new religious movement. A Concise Encyclopedia of the Baha'i Faith Peter Smith, 2013-10-01 Written by a well-known author in the field of Baha'i studies, this is a comprehensive and accessible encyclopedia to the youngest of the world religions. Regarded as the second most widespread faith after Christianity, with adherents in almost every country around the globe, the Baha'i faith is nevertheless unfamiliar to many here. Dr. Smith traces the origins and development of the religion from 19th-century Iran to the modern day, introducing its central figures and major historical events, combining breadth with a readable yet concise style. He provides a balanced overview of Baha'i scriptures, doctrines, and practices, social teachings, and organization. This reference work presents a clear and knowledgeable view of a fascinating new religion. Quddús: The First in Rank Boris Handal, 2024-09-01 The book presents the fascinating real-life story of Quddús, the son of a poor Persian rice farmer who rose to become the most illustrious disciple of the Báb. Thoroughly researched and broad in scope, it is a story of the rugged journey filled with pathos and exhilarating triumph at every turn during the five short eventful years he spent in absolute servitude to the Báb. We experience the vivid details of a life which left no room for settling down as he valiantly approached the centre of an intense ever-increasing maelstrom at the very inception and birth of a new world religion fraught with opposition and intrigue yet filled with spiritual confirmations culminating in an unprecedented climax. This work also features new translations of select Tablets by Bahá'u'lláh and the Báb, as well as previously unpublished writings of Quddús. The book spans 605 pages and includes 87 illustrations. World Order, 1997
