Studies in Chinese Literature John Lyman Bishop, 1965 Topics in Chinese Literature, 1966 Studies in Chinese Literature. [By Various Authors.] Edited by John L. Bishop John Lyman BISHOP, 1965 Chinese Literature in Transition from Antiquity to the Middle Ages Donald Holzman, 2024-12-11 This volume aims to account for the tremendous changes in the attitudes towards the world and towards themselves that can be seen in the works of Chinese writers in the early centuries of the Christian era How do the massive conversion of such a large part of the population to Buddhism and the widespread development of the Daoist religion correspond to the conversion of the West to Christianity Does this conversion to new religions that were replacing the ancient imperial religions represent similar developments on the eastern and western fringes of the Old World Can we speak with any confidence of the gradual evolution of China from an Antiquity to a Middle Ages The author attempts to show that in their attitudes towards literature and their appreciation of landscape during the Han and the first four centuries of the Christian era we can see signs of a turning inward and the birth of new forms of spirituality akin to those that arose in the West during the same period Studies in Chinese Poetry James R. Hightower, Florence Chia-ying Yeh, 2020-10-26 This collection of seventeen essays by James R Hightower and Florence Chia ying Yeh contains three chapters on shih poetry ten chapters on Sung tz u and four chapters on the works of Wang Kuo wei It includes ten previously unpublished works including Hightower s now classic work on T ao Ch ien and Yeh s studies of Subg tz u as well as seven important additions to the literature on Chinese poetry The essays treat individual poets particular poetic techniques for example allusion and general issues of period style and poetry criticism The previously published items have been updated to include the Chinese texts of all poems presented in translation Although authored separately by Professors Hightower and Yeh the essays presented here are the result of their thirty years of collaboration in working on Chinese poetry Through close readings of individual texts the two authors explicate the stylistic and psychological components of the work of the poets they study and present compelling interpretations of their poems A Bibliography of Studies and Translations of Modern Chinese Literature, 1918-1942 Donald A. Gibbs, Yun-chen Li, 2020-03-17 Foreword by Ezra F Vogel Director of the East Asia Research Center Introduction Includes sources studies of modern Chinese literature studies and translations of individual authors and unidentified authors Some titles shown in Chinese characters Three appendices Index Topics in Chinese literature James Robert Hightower, 1953 The Chinese Short Story Patrick Hanan, 2013-10-01 During the centuries of its popularity early Chinese vernacular fiction was never adequately preserved or even documented The great popular appeal of the short stories saved them from oblivion but it was only in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries that they were first collected and published Mr Hanan s erudite study is the first thorough attempt to uncover the history of the Chinese short story Using a variety of techniques but principally that of stylistic analysis the author solves the fundamental problem of dating the stories in terms of periods He is able to place each story in one of three broad categories early ca 1250 1450 middle ca 1400 1575 and late ca 1550 1627 and to assign some of them to the earlier or later part of the time span In many cases he offers evidence of sources and influences place of origin and possible or probable authorship On the basis of the author's research it is possible to see in minutely researched detail how the short story developed in China what kind of men composed it its relationship to other kinds of literature and the main social preoccupations with which it deals The results of Mr Hanan's study are vitally important to all scholars of Chinese literature Historians and linguists will also find it valuable as a model of the innovative use of stylistic analysis Ancient and Early Medieval Chinese Literature (Vol. I), 2010-09-10 At last here is the long awaited first Western language reference guide focusing exclusively on Chinese literature from ca 700 B C E to the early seventh century C E Alphabetically organized it contains no less than 1095 entries on major and minor writers literary forms and schools and important Chinese literary terms In addition to providing authoritative information about each subject the compilers have taken meticulous care to include detailed up to date bibliographies and source information The reader will find it a treasure trove of historical accounts especially when browsing through the biographies of authors Indispensable for scholars and students of pre modern Chinese literature history and thought Part One contains A to R Lu Xun and World Literature Xiaolu Ma, Carlos Rojas, 2025-01-07 In Lu Xun and World Literature Xiaolu Ma Carlos Rojas and other contributors examine various aspects of Lu Xun who is known as the father of modern Chinese literature Essays in this book focus on Lu Xun's works in relation to the notions of world literature and processes of literary worlding The contributors offer detailed analyses of Lu Xun's own literary oeuvre and of foreign works that engage with his writings This volume also focuses on many facets of the publication and dissemination of Lu Xun's works from printing and binding to the discussions and debates that followed their release in China and abroad This book not only makes an important contribution to the field of Lu Xun studies but also proposes a reexamination of the category of world literature This exceptional volume sheds new and important light on the increasingly incumbent question of the relationship between the literary giant Lu Xun and world literature Rather than dwell on how the author's work fits into some pre-existing rubric the essays in this volume explore new territory in investigating how Lu Xun's work contributes to the way in which the character of world literature itself must be continually reconstructed and reimagined Theodore D Hutters University of California Los Angeles This volume examines questions surrounding the relationship between Lu Xun world literature and the underlying processes of worlding situating his work as a writer and a translator in a global context both among and interacting with prominent international works and literary movements as well as influencing writers and readers in countries well beyond China As such it is a milestone in our understanding of this challenging always witty and engaging gadfly of the state Just as Lu Xun and His Legacy edited by Leo Ou fan Lee brought together much of the best in twentieth century scholarship on Lu Xun ours is a massive dose of good fortune to have Lu Xun and World Literature to steer us into the twenty first Jon Eugene von Kowallis University of New South Wales Sydney author
