Ecocritics and Ecoskeptics Jonathan F. Krell, 2020-09-01 Ecocritics and Ecoskeptics examines environmental themes and questions about the evolving relationship between humans and animals in nine modern and contemporary French novels Considering arguments from both environmentalists and ecoskeptics it concludes that far from distancing itself from humanism as it often has environmentalism must embrace an inclusive and ecological humanism

Human Nature, Cultural Diversity, and the French Enlightenment Henry Vyverberg, 1989-08-17 In this work Henry Vyverberg traces the evolution and consequences of a crucial idea in French Enlightenment thought the idea of human nature Human nature was commonly seen as a broadly universal unchanging entity though perhaps modifiable by geographical social and historical factors Enlightenment empiricism suggested a degree of cultural diversity that has often been underestimated in studies of the age Evidence here is drawn from Diderot's celebrated Encyclopedia and from a vast range of writing by such Enlightenment notables as Voltaire Rousseau and d'Holbach Vyverberg explains not only the age's undoubted fascination with uniformity in human nature but also its acknowledgment of significant limitations on that uniformity He shows that although the Enlightenment's historical sense was often blinkered by its notions of a uniform human nature there were also cracks in this concept that developed during the Enlightenment itself

Amour-propre and Perfectability James Mitchell Lee, 1994

International Bibliography of Historical Sciences, 1975 Verzeichnis der exzerpierten Zeitschriften 1926 p XXXI XVII

Epistemology and Natural Philosophy in the 18th Century Danilo Capecchi, 2020-08-25 This book documents the process of transformation from natural philosophy which was considered the most important of the sciences until the early modern era into modern disciplines such as mathematics physics natural history chemistry medicine and engineering It focuses on the 18th century which has often been considered uninteresting for the history of science representing the transition from the age of genius and the birth of modern science the 17th century to the age of prodigious development in the 19th century Yet the 18th century the century of Enlightenment as will be demonstrated here was in fact characterized by substantial ferment and novelty To make the text more accessible little emphasis has been placed on the precise genesis of the various concepts and methods developed in scientific enterprises except when doing so was necessary to make them clear For the sake of simplicity in several situations reference is made to the authors who are famous today such as Newton the Bernoullis Euler d'Alembert Lagrange Lambert Volta et al not necessarily because they were the most creative and original minds but mainly because their writings represent a synthesis of contemporary and past studies The above names should therefore be considered more labels of a period than references to real historical characters

Comparative Criticism: Volume 5, Hermeneutic Criticism E. S. Shaffer, 1986-04-17 Addresses literary theory and criticism comparative studies in terms of theme genre movement and influence and interdisciplinary perspectives

Threads and Traces Carlo Ginzburg, 2012-01-09 Carlo Ginzburg's brilliant and timely new essay collection takes a bold stand against naive positivism

and allegedly sophisticated neo skepticism It looks deeply into questions raised by decades of post structuralism What constitutes historical truth How do we draw a boundary between truth and fiction What is the relationship between history and memory How do we grapple with the historical conventions that inform in different ways all written documents In his answers Ginzburg peels away layers of subsequent readings and interpretations that envelop every text to make a larger argument about history and fiction Interwoven with compelling autobiographical references Threads and Traces bears moving witness to Ginzburg's life as a European Jew the abiding strength of his scholarship and his deep engagement with the historian's craft

A Critical Bibliography of French Literature V4 18th C , The Legacies of Literacy Harvey J. Graff, 1987-03-22 This book will be a monumental contribution to the topic and a staple of scholarship for decades Michael B Katz A remarkable volume of critical synthesis and passionate revisionism Journal of Economic History ambitious and stimulating required reading not only for social historians but also for policy makers and activists Histoire Sociale Clearly an important book marks a significant point in the history of literacy studies History of Education Quarterly A stimulating challenge to traditional assumptions and scholarly commonplaces Journal of Communication Brokering Empire E. Natalie Rothman, 2012-03-27 Explores how diplomatic interpreters converts and commercial brokers mediated and helped define political linguistic and religious boundaries between the Venetian and Ottoman empires in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Author's Web site
