The Stuff of Life Alice Evelyn Philipps, 1942 The Stuff of Life. A Reminiscence STUFF., 1942 The Man Who Mistook His Wife For A Hat: And Other Clinical Tales Oliver Sacks, 1998 Explores neurological disorders and their effects upon the minds and lives of those affected with an entertaining voice On the Cultures of Exile, Translation, and Writing Paolo Bartoloni, 2008 The hypothesis of Paolo Bartoloni's book is based on the belief that a substantial and innovative discussion of the philosophical notions of immanence and potentiality is not only overdue but also necessary to address the social political cultural and ethical aporia confronting us today The phenomenon of globalization with its countless sub narratives such as mobility migration security authenticity and inauthenticity can be thought and contextualized through a close reading and articulation of immanence and potentiality The author provides a tangible and workable philosophical and cultural discourse within which to present an alternative understanding of subjectivity by engaging in a theoretical discussion with the philosophical discourse on potentiality and immanence of which the writings of Gilles Deleuze and Giorgio Agamben are among the most advanced and innovative examples to date Secondly Bartoloni presents a virtual insight into the potential immanent subject and community through exploring a radically new interpretation of exile translation and temporality Finally the author shows how the experience of potentiality and immanence and their ontological statuses have been explored and realized in literature through a close reading and articulation of a series of selected texts especially works by Giorgio Caproni and Maurice Blanchot The methodology of the study is interdisciplinary ranging across literary theory postmodern cultural analysis hermeneutics and comparative culture analysis General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum. possibilities are opened up for analysis of artworks and other cultural objects Here we find these travelling concepts employed in fresh explorations of subjects as diverse as the paintings of Poussin and of Adam Elsheimer Chantal Akerman's film the Museum of the French Revolution and the work of German Jewish painter Charlotte Salomon This is a uniquely illuminating contribution to the edgy territorial conflicts between visual culture art history and cultural studies
