As Partners in Education

(in and out of school)

2

By Exercising their Choice

(between and within schools)

Parents maximizing value from the existing system

- New parents are constantly entering the system
- The needs of existing parents change as their children age
- Changes in the system can open up or constrain opportunities

Parents changing the way the system operates

- No decision is permanent. Individuals in authority can change. Their positions can change. Laws/policies can be changed at higher levels
- Those who don't agree with your impact agenda aren't going to stop pursuing their alternative agenda
- Changes in financial resources can present both opportunities and challenges
- New innovations present new opportunities to improve education - if change is embraced by the system
