Taking a Part David Green,Maxine Green,2000 Young people are a marginalized group They are often apart from the Church rather than a part of the Church The thought that young people might be able to help others in the Church in real and dynamic ways is rarely considered In an accessible and readable way the authors use theories from sociology psychology and anthropology to throw light on this key issue of participation in the Church Alongside the theory Taking A Part features thought provoking contributions from young people and youth workers who relate their experience of Church and offer successful examples of their own active contributions to Church life This is set within a theological context which draws on the biblical story of the talents Taking A Part continues the challenge to the Church of exploring new ways of building relationships with young people first brought to light in Youth A Part     Taking [A]part John McCarthy,Peter Wright,2024-07-02 A critical inquiry into the value and experience of participation in design research In Taking A part John McCarthy and Peter Wright consider a series of boundary pushing research projects in human computer interaction HCI in which the design of digital technology is used to inquire into participative experience McCarthy and Wright view all of these projects which range from the public and performative to the private and interpersonal through the critical lens of participation Taking participation in all its variety as the generative and critical concept allows them to examine the projects as a part of a coherent responsive movement allied with other emerging movements in DIY culture and participatory art Their investigation leads them to rethink such traditional HCI categories as designer and user maker and developer researcher and participant characterizing these relationships instead as mutually responsive and dialogical McCarthy and Wright explore four genres of participation understanding the other building relationships belonging in community and participating in publics and they examine participatory projects that exemplify each genre These include the Humanaquarium a participatory musical performance the Personhood project in which a researcher and a couple explored the experience of living with dementia the Prayer Companion project which developed a technology to inform the prayer life of cloistered nuns and the development of social media to support participatory publics in settings that range from reality game show fans to on line deliberative democracies     Taking Part Gwendolyn Cartledge,James Kleefeld,2009 Accompanying computer disk contains PDF files of reproducible forms and handouts referenced in the text     Taking Part Various,2018-06-01 The Living Arts Library is specially designed to stimulate children s interest and imagination in all aspects of the international arts The activity based approach encourages readers to try for themselves a variety of skills and techniques     Taking Part in Democracy Peter Krapf,Rolf Gollob,Wiltrud Weidinger,2010-01-01 This is a manual for teachers in Education for Democratic Citizenship EDC and Human Rights Education HRE EDC HRE textbook editors and curriculum developers Nine teaching units of approximately four lessons each focus on key concepts of EDC HRE The lesson plans give step by step instructions and include student handouts and background information for teachers In this way the
