Research Design for Social Work and the Human Services Jeane W. Anastas, 2000-01-28 Research Design for Social Work and the Human Services integrates a range of research techniques into a single epistemological framework and presents a balanced approach to the teaching of research methods in the helping professions Jeane W Anastas begins with a discussion of the different philosophical perspectives within which social research occurs and continues with problem formulation research design and methodological issues influencing data collection analysis and dissemination She presents both fixed quantitative and flexible qualitative methods of research granting legitimacy value utility and relevance to both styles of inquiry Utilizing complete case studies to illustrate different methodological approaches Research Design for Social Work and the Human Services integrates material on women and people of color and draws attention to the ways racism heterosexism sexism and classism affect the conceptualization and conduct of research Anastas not only exposes these biases but actively addresses the experiences needs and concerns of clients of both genders and different races ethnicities sexual orientations cultures and classes Lesbian Family Life, Like the Fingers of a Hand Valory Mitchell, 2013-09-13 In this book an array of approaches first person and theoretical accounts clinical understandings qualitative and quantitative research are brought to bear on controversial or under discussed topics in lesbian family life From conception all the way to care for elderly parents this book takes a fresh look at lesbian family relationships Topics include butch femme couples infidelity the psychological meaning of family for lesbians age discrepant couples lesbian nuns as family Listservs as family intentional family for aging women women raising sons mothers who come out late in life mothers and children in situations of domestic violence lack of support for lesbian domestic violence survivors death of a partner psychological issues in the use of sperm donors or surrogates and middle aged lesbians caring for homophobic elderly parents Some authors use self psychology and Jungian psychology to describe aspects of family life The richness and diversity of topics makes it a text on lesbian lives Therapists and academics from throughout the U S have contributed to this collection Many lesbian women as well as teachers it can be a text and mental health professionals who work with children families couples and elderly will find useful material here This book was published as a special issue of the Journal of Lesbian Studies Special Reference Briefs , 1983 Caregiving Beth Witrogen McLeod, 2000-08-04 Framed by the author's personal odyssey as a caregiver and richly informed by the inspiring and poignant tales of others Caregiving explores medical and financial problems all aspects of spirituality and such issues as depression stress housing home care and end of life concerns A rare blend of powerful storytelling and practical information Caregiving is a revelation Lifting Our Voices Joyce Octavia Beckett, 2008 Lifting Our Voices is the only book to explore the dual roles of professional social workers who are also family caregivers and the only collection on caregiving in which the majority of contributors are African American After discussing the relevant literature Lifting Our Voices vividly and sensitively presents the caregiving experiences of ten professional social workers Using professional and theoretical knowledge and skills each contributor draws implications for various levels of social work and human service interventions These poignant descriptions and analyses recount both the frustrations and barriers of negotiating social service agencies and other institutions and the joys and triumphs of family caregiving Lifting Our Voices frankly discusses how a professional education either prepares or fails to equip an individual with the skills for successful intervention on behalf of a loved one Contributors hail from rich and varied backgrounds revealing the importance of age ethnicity gender marital status and gerontological expertise in the practice of family caregiving These essays explore situations rarely reported on in the literature such as caregivers and care recipients who represent the lifespan from preschool to retirement Lifting Our Voices graphically describes types of caregiving that are seldom discussed including simultaneous caregiving to multiple family members and reciprocal and sequential caregiving thus broadening and refining the very concepts of caregiving and family My Mother's Hip Luise Margolies,2004 Some 400 000 hip fractures occur every year the vast majority among the elderly all too often these fractures are associated with death or severe disability After her mother's double hip fracture Luisa Margolies immersed herself in identifying and coordinating the services and professionals needed to provide critical care for an elderly person She soon realized that the American medical system is ill prepared to deal with the long term care needs of our graying society The heart of My Mother's Hip is taken up with the author's day to day observations as her mother's condition worsened then improved only to worsen again while her father became increasingly anxious and disoriented As both a devoted daughter and a skilled anthropologist Margolies vividly renders her interactions with physicians nurses hospital workers nursing home administrators the Medicare bureaucracy home care providers and her parents In the Lessons chapter that follows each episode she discusses in a broader context the weighty decisions that adult children must make on their parents behalf and the emotional toll their responsibility takes Here she addresses the complex practical issues that commonly arise in such situations understanding the consequences of hip fracture and its treatment preparing health care proxies and advanced directives enabling elders to remain at home and the heartbreaking dilemma of prolonging life Like many adult children Margolies learned her lessons about eldercare in the midst of crises This book is intended to ease the information gathering and decision making processes for others involved in eldercare Caring for Aging Loved Ones Focus,2002 Offers support to caregivers of the elderly covering everything from understanding the physical and mental changes of aging to handling finances making medical decisions getting help and dealing with end of life issues The Motley Fool's Money After 40 David Gardner,Tom Gardner,2004-07-30 With their famous wit seasoned advice and impeccable business savvy the bestselling financial duo shows baby boomers how to build wealth and security and how to afford anything they want when the work is done Whether retirement is on the distant horizon or right under your nose The Motley Fool's Money After 40 is for anyone who wants a stable future free from financial anxiety Baby boomers will learn how to fortify their portfolios to weather any economic climate and live the life they want regardless of the market's peaks and valleys Applying the principles of commonsense money management David and Tom Gardner first explain how to predict what you will need and desire when you stop working Do you want to volunteer in the community Do you want the resources to turn a hobby into a small business Do you want to build an addition to your house for grandchildren In plain language the Gardners guide you in creating realistic financial goals From owning the right size home to affording sufficient health coverage from sending your kids to college to taking that exotic vacation The Motley Fool's Money After 40 explains how to Organize your finances to
