Rainforest Cowboys Jeffrey Hoelle, 2015-04-15 The opening of the Amazon to colonization in the 1970s brought cattle land conflict and widespread deforestation In the remote state of Acre Brazil rubber tappers fought against migrant ranchers to preserve the forest they relied on and in the process these forest guardians showed the world that it was possible to unite forest livelihoods and environmental preservation Nowadays many rubber tappers and their children are turning away from the forest-based lifestyle they once sought to protect and are becoming cattle raisers or even caubois cowboys Rainforest Cowboys is the first book to examine the social and cultural forces driving the expansion of Amazonian cattle raising in all of their complexity Drawing on eighteen months of fieldwork Jeffrey Hoelle shows how cattle raising is about much more than beef production or deforestation in Acre even among carnivorous environmentalists vilified ranchers and urbanites with no land or cattle He contextualizes the rise of ranching in relation to political economic structures and broader meanings to understand the spread of cattle culture This cattle-centered vision of rural life builds on local experiences and influences from across the Americas and even resembles East African cultural practices Written in a broadly accessible and interdisciplinary style Rainforest Cowboys is essential reading for a global audience interested in understanding the economic and cultural features of cattle raising deforestation and the continuing tensions between conservation and development in the Amazon Animal Geographies Jennifer Wolch, Jody Emel, 1998-09-17 Each year billions of animals are poisoned dissected displaced killed for consumption or held in captivity usually for the benefit of humans The animal world has never been under greater peril and this broad ranging collection contributes to a much needed fundamental rethinking about our relation with it Animal Geographies explores the diverse ways in which animals shape the formation of human identity Essays on zoos and wolves for example reveal how animals figure in social constructions of race gender and nationality From questions of identity and subjectivity it moves to a consideration of the places where people and animals confront the realities of coexistence on an everyday basis by way of case studies of species such as mountain lions and the golden eagle It then examines the ways in which animals figure in the ongoing globalization of production and mass consumption illustrated by essays on the US meatpacking industry and meat production in the Indian state of Rajasthan and finally takes up legal and ethical approaches to human animal relations Animal Geographies compels a profound rethinking of the nature of human animal relations and offers a series of proposals for reconstituting this relationship on a progressive basis Contributors Kay Anderson Glen Elder Andrea Gullo Unna Lassiter William S Lynn Suzanne M Michel Chris Philo James D Proctor Paul Robbins Frances M Ufkes James L Wescoat Jr Resisting Structural Evil Cynthia D.
