Tale Of Two Factions Myth Memory And Identity In Ottoman Egypt And Yemen:

A Tale of Two Factions Jane Hathaway, 2003-10-09 Reevaluates the foundation myths of two rival factions in Egypt during the Ottoman era A Tale of Two Factions Jane Hathaway, 2012-02-01 Winner of the 2003 Ohio Academy of History Outstanding Publication Award This revisionist study reevaluates the origins and foundation myths of the Faqaris and Qasimis two rival factions that divided Egyptian society during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries when Egypt was the largest province in the Ottoman Empire In answer to the enduring mystery surrounding the factions origins Jane Hathaway places their emergence within the generalized crisis that the Ottoman Empire like much of the rest of the world suffered during the early modern period while uncovering a symbiosis between Ottoman Egypt and Yemen that was critical to their formation In addition she scrutinizes the factions foundation myths deconstructing their tropes and symbols to reveal their connections to much older popular narratives Drawing on parallels from a wide array of cultures she demonstrates with striking originality how rituals such as storytelling and public processions as well as identifying colors and emblems could serve to reinforce factional identity

Remembering Jews in Maghrebi and Middle Eastern Media Brahim El Guabli, Mostafa Hussein, 2024-09-10 This volume examines the cultural legacy of Jewish emigration from the Maghreb and the Middle East in the years following 1948 Drawing on the remarkable cinematic and literary output of the last twenty years this collection posits loss as a new conceptual framework in which to understand Jewish Muslim relations Previous studies of Jewish emigration have followed the mass departure of Jews but the contributors to this book choose to remain behind and trace the contours of Jewish absence in Maghrebi and Middle Eastern societies Attuned to loss in this way the cultural memories of Jewish Muslim life transcend the narratives of turmoil taboo and nostalgia that have dominated Muslim and prevalent scholarly perspectives on Jewish emigration Read as a whole the collection affords an uncommon opportunity to mourn and heal through a nuanced reckoning with the absence of Jews from communities in which they had lived for millennia Its wide geographic reach and interdisciplinary nature will speak both to scholars and lay readers in Amazigh studies Arabic studies Middle Eastern studies Jewish studies memory studies and a host of other disciplines In addition to the editors the contributors to this volume are Iskandar Ahmad Abdalla Abdelkader Aoudjit Iker Hepkaner Sarah Irving

Shop Floor Culture and Politics in Egypt Samer S. Shehata, 2009-10-05 In Shop Floor Culture and Politics in Egypt Samer S Shehata provides us with a unique and detailed ethnographic portrait of life within two large textile factories in Alexandria Egypt Working for nearly a year as a winding machine operator provided Shehata with unprecedented access to workers at the point of production and the activities of the work hall He argues that the social organization of production in the factories including company rules and procedures hierarchy and relations of authority and shop floor culture profoundly shape what it means to be a worker and how this identity is understood Shehata reveals how economic relations inside the factory are simultaneously relations of significance and meaning and how the production of wool and cotton textiles is at the same time the production of categories of identity patterns of human interaction and understandings of the self and others Transformation of Muslim Mystical Thought in the Ottoman Empire John J. Curry, 2010-10-19 One of more poorly understood aspects of the history of the Ottoman Empire has been the flourishing of Sufi mysticism under its auspices This study tracks the evolution of the Halveti order from its modest origins in medieval Azerbaijan to the emergence of its influential Sa baniyye branch whose range extended throughout the Empire at the height of its expansion By carefully reconstructing the lives of formerly obscure figures in the history of the order a complex picture emerges of the connections of Halveti groups with the Ottoman state and society Even more importantly since the Sa baniyye branch of the order grew out of the towns and villages of the northern Anatolian mountains rather than the major urban centres this work has the added benefit of bringing a unique perspective to how Ottoman subjects lived worked and worshiped outside the major urban centres of the Empire Along the way it sheds light on less visible actors in society such as women and artisans and challenges widely held generalizations about the activities and strategies of Ottoman mystics Slaves Without Shackles Nur Sobers-Khan, 2020-08-10 No detailed description available for Slaves Without Shackles Rethinking Architectural Historiography Dana Arnold, Elvan Altan Ergut, Belgin Turan Ozkaya, 2006-09-27 Rather than subscribing to a single position this collection informs the reader about the current state of the discipline looking at changes across the broad field of methodological theoretical and geographical plurality Divided into three sections Rethinking Architectural Historiography begins by renegotiating foundational and contemporary boundaries of architectural history in relation to other fields such as art history and archaeology It then goes on to critically engage with past and present histories disclosing assumptions biases and absences in architectural historiography It concludes by exploring the possibilities provided by new perspectives reframing the discipline in the light of new parameters and problematics This timely and illustrated title reflects upon the current changes in historiographical practice exploring potential openings that may contribute further transformation of the disciplines and theories on architectural historiography and addresses the current question of the disciplinary particularity of architectural history Egypt Robert L. Tignor, 2011-09-12 A sweeping and colorful account of Egypt's 5000 year history This is a sweeping colorful and concise narrative history of Egypt from the beginning of human settlement in the Nile River valley 5000 years ago to the present day Accessible authoritative and richly illustrated this is an ideal introduction and guide to Egypt's long brilliant and complex history for general readers tourists and anyone else who wants a better understanding of this vibrant and fascinating country one that has played a central role in world history for millennia and that continues to do so today Respected historian Robert Tignor who has lived in Egypt at different times over the course of five decades covers all the major eras of the country's ancient modern and recent history A cradle of civilization ancient Egypt developed a unique and influential culture that featured a centralized monarchy sophisticated art and technology and monumental architecture in the form of pyramids and temples But the great age of the pharaohs is just the beginning of the story and Egypt A Short History also gives a rich account of the tumultuous history that followed from Greek and Roman conquests the rise of Christianity Arab Muslim triumph and Egypt's incorporation into powerful Islamic empires to Napoleon's 1798 invasion the country's absorption into the British Empire and modern postcolonial Egypt under Nasser Sadat and Mubarak This book provides an indispensable key to Egypt in all its layers ancient and modern Greek and Roman and Christian and Islamic In a new afterword the author analyzes the recent unrest in Egypt and weighs in on what the country might look like after Mubarak Braudel Revisited Gabriel Piterberg, Teofilo Ruiz, Geoffrey Symcox, 2015-10-06 Fernand Braudel 1912 1985 was a leading French historian and author of among other books the groundbreaking The Mediterranean and the Mediterranean World in the Age of Philip II 1949 One of the founders of the Annales School in France Braudel insisted on treating the Mediterranean region as a whole irrespective of religious and national divides Braudel's new historiography rejected political history as the dominant discipline and espoused a total history or a history from below that would tell the story of the vast majority of humanity hitherto excluded from the grand narrative At the time of the book's appearance this premise was revolutionary The contributors to Braudel Revisited assess the impact of Braudel's work on today's academic world in light of subsequent methodological shifts Engaging with Braudel's texts as well as with his ideas the essays in this volume speak to the enduring legacy of his work on the ongoing exploration of early modern history Conflict on Mount Lebanon Makram Rabah, 2020-08-18 The Druze and the Maronites arguably the two founding communities of modern Lebanon have the reputation of being primordial enemies Makram Rabah attempts to gauge the impact of collective memory on determining the course and the nature of the conflict between these communities in Mount Lebanon He takes as his focus the War of the Mountain in 1982 reconstructing the events of this war through the framework of collective remembrance and oral history He challenges the idea that these group identities were constructed by their respective centres of power within the Maronite and Druze community providing an alternative to the prevailing meta narrative Telling the stories of the many people who took part in these events or who simply suffered as a consequence helps to expose the intrinsic motives which led to this conflict and makes a valuable contribution to the field of Lebanese historical scholarship The Mamluk Sultanate Carl F. Petry, 2022-05-26 An engaging and accessible survey of the Mamluk Sultanate which positions the realm within the development of comparative political systems from a global perspective Enlightening Europe on Islam and the Ottomans Carter Vaughn Findley, 2019-02-04 Mouradgea d'Ohsson's Tableau g n ral de l'Empire ottoman offered the Enlightenment Republic of Letters its most authoritative work on Islam and the Ottomans also a practical reference work for kings and statesmen Profusely illustrated and opening deep insights into illustrated book production in this period this is also the richest collection of visual documentation on the Ottomans in a hundred years Shaped by the author's personal struggles the work yet commands recognition in its own totality as a monument to inter cultural understanding In form one of the great taxonomic works of Enlightenment thought this is a work of advocacy in the cause of reform and amity among France Sweden and the Ottoman Empire Mamluk Historiography Revisited – Narratological Perspectives Stephan Conermann, 2018-08-13 This volume discusses Mamluk historical texts with an emphasis on literary stylistic analysis basically ignoring issues of factuality versus fictivity None of the authors set out to write fiction nor would their audience have received their accounts as such The events depicted were a matter of historical record but their meaning was geared both to contemporary and to general concerns The fact of telling them is part and parcel of the historian's task the means of telling them has to do with the historian's choice of style and style is all important in conveying meaning Were these accounts not considered true the purpose behind their telling and the meaning they convey would arguably be lost but were they not told in the most effective manner their meaning might not be clearly grasped The ^Acaliph and the Imam Toby Matthiesen, 2023-03-09 No sectarian division has had a more momentous impact than that between the two dominant branches of Islam Widely considered the world's leading expert on the subject Toby Matthiesen offers the full story of the Sunni Shia split delving down to its roots in the early days of Islam and following it to the present day and its effect on current events not just in the Middle East but globally Sacred Law in the Holy City Judith Mendelsohn Rood, 2020-11-09 The Muslim community's political and socio-economic role in Jerusalem under Ottoman administration during the 1830s is analyzed in this volume from a natural law perspective A bitter political contest between Sultan Mahmud II and Muhammad Ali Pasha resulted in the military occupation of Syria and imposition of a brutal new political and legal regime which crushed the indigenous elites of southern Syria Through a careful analysis of the archives of the Islamic law court of Jerusalem the study offers a fresh appraisal of how the Ottoman Empire ruled Jerusalem and considers the Muslim response elucidating the reasons for the breakdown of their relations with non-Muslim Ottoman subjects and differentiating the Ottoman understanding of law and government from that of their enemies the Wahhabis The Islamic Scholarly Tradition Michael A. Cook, Asad Ahmed, Behnam Sadeghi, Michael Bonner, 2011-03-21 Bringing together the expansive scholarly expertise of former students of Professor Michael Allan Cook this volume contains highly original articles in Islamic history law and thought The contributions range from studies in the pre-Islamic calendar to the blood money group in Islamic law to transformations in Arabic logic The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 3, AD 1420-AD 1804 David Eltis, Stanley L. Islamic Reform and Conservatism Indira Falk Gesink, 2009-11-30 The famed reform debates at al Azhar Madrasa in nineteenth century Cairo one of the most influential centres of religious study in Sunni Islam were enormously influential for twentieth century Islamic thought Here Indira Gesink offers a revisionist history of these debates over curricular and administrative reforms and challenges our understanding of the struggle between Islamic reform and conservatism It has been assumed that famous Islamic modernists such as Muhammad Abduh instigated the reform movement and the ideas of modern religious life that emanated from al Azhar and permeated Islamic society a development that religious conservatives opposed Gesink draws on obscure but important archival sources legal manuals and ephemeral journals to tell the other side of the story and to illustrate the important contributions of conservative scholars to the evolution of twentieth century Sunni Islam Conservative opponents of reform engaged many of the same issues as reformers and actively pursued alternative visions of reform In fact texts of enacted reforms show greater attention to concerns of conservatives than to the original programmes of Muhammad Abduh and conservatives led ulama committees that generated and implemented reforms Had religious conservatives not contributed to the reforms of the early twentieth century these reforms would have lacked the crucial cultural assonance that permitted them to become rooted in public life in an environment of rising nationalist anti British sentiment which saw Abduh as a willing agent of colonialists The debates ultimately catalyzed public acceptance of secularism Islamic modernism and radical Islamism They also led to the practice of lay legal interpretation the proliferation of competing interpretations within Sunni Islam and the rise of militant sects By drawing on obscure archival sources and restoring conservative voices to the debate Islamic Reform and Conservatism presents a more nuanced picture of the al Azhar debates and the forces that shaped Islamic religious life in the twentieth century than has become the norm Its original scholarship and fresh analysis make this book indispensable for all those interested in the modern Middle East religious history Islamic studies radical Islam and militancy secularism modernism and religious reform
