The Myth and Identity of the Romantic Artist in European Literature Elena Anastasaki, 2022-08-04 This study addresses the question of artistic identity and the myth of the artist as it has been shaped by the artists themselves While the term artist is to be understood in a broad sense the focus of this study is the literature of the Romantic tradition Identity is largely perceived as a construct and a central hypothesis of this book concerns its aesthetic value and the ways it creates dominant narratives of self perception that produce powerful myths The construction of the artist s identity be it collective or personal rests on a series of aesthetic praxes Caught between the mythic idealisation of poetic genius and its social devaluation the Romantic artist seeks to create a place for himself and in doing so he engages in his own mythmaking This process is studied in an interdisciplinary perspective approaching texts and writers from different traditions The study analyses various typologies of the artist numerous mythmaking strategies as well as several postural techniques all of which have sketched major direct or indirect fictional self portraits in the European tradition     Conscience, Denied Charles E. Miller, 2010-10-22

Literate Americans encounter the word conscience yet scarcely pay any attention to its source its proscriptions in human affairs or its power to affect human conduct The Conscience is a weapon for survival and a tool to correct protect and guide the individual in the often troubled course of his or her life These pages illustrate its applications and recognition down through human history beginning at the Fall of Adam and Eve Whether or not the reader shares that biblical account of human history is irrelevant The actuality of conscience in human relations and in the historicity of world events cannot be denied Our pioneers did not underscore the word but every brave progress to settle America involved the conscience of moral and ethical decisions Is the land ours Should I risk my family's lives to make this journey What confidence should I place in our caravan leader How shall I honestly manage to survive without theft murder or mayhem The very reality of survival whether against a military enemy or on wilderness excursion calls upon the human conscience to discern the risks are or the sacrifice or potential loss of life in the doing Miller has included several interesting illustrations a poem that deals with presidential lack of discernment a river trip that involves the choice of dangerous adventure or bank side and a brief drama that illustrates the confrontation of Caesar with the original Christians The conscience is directed usually unbeknownst to the possessor by God's moral law of love for one's neighbor ie another human being made in God's image This law of the conscientized accounts for this great nation's compassion toward the world and condemns abortion euthanasia and fratricide It also controls and includes the process of justice to protect the innocent     Augustin Thierry: Social and Political Consciousness in the Evolution of a Historical Method Rulon Nephi Smithson, 1972     The Lyceumite and Talent, 1907     The Egalitarian Conscience Gerald Allan Cohen, 2006-04-06 The Egalitarian Conscience pays tribute to the highly influential work of Professor G A Cohen Professor Cohen is a philosopher of international stature and tremendous achievement who has been vital to the flourishing of egalitarian political philosophy He has a significant body of work spanning issues of Marxism and distributive justice consistently characterized by original ideas and ingenious arguments The high standard of rigour he sets for progressive thinkers particularly himself has been a source of inspiration for colleagues and students alike The volume honours Professor Cohen with first rate essays on a number of significant and fascinating topics reflecting the wide ranging themes of Professor Cohen's work but united in their concern for questions of social justice pluralism equality and moral duty The contributors are scholars of international stature Joshua Cohen Jon Elster Susan Hurley Will Kymlicka Derek Parfit John Roemer T M Scanlon Samuel Scheffler Hillel Steiner and Jeremy Waldron There is an afterword by G A Cohen     New Perspectives on the European Bildungsroman Giovanna Summerfield, Lisa Downward, 2010-10-18 New Perspectives on the European Bildungsroman reflects the change in direction of research on the

Bildungsroman focusing on more psychological authorial and feminist contents Departing from the father of the prototype of the genre Goethe the authors trace imperative pathways to its French British and Italian counterparts examining spiritual and female Bildungsromane A wide ranging analysis provides fresh insights into the genre through comparative analyses of Bildungsromane both diatopically and diachronically while critical analysis of novels such as Voltaire's Candide Charlotte Brontë's Jane Eyre Charles Dickens's David Copperfield Collodi's Pinocchio Aleramo's Una donna present new readings of the characters plots and purposes of the most famous European novels

Life and Conscience Miguel Ochoa, 2013-01-08 Life on Earth appears to be integrated by hierarchical levels from the most humble molecule of DNA which is a collection of atoms to multicellular organisms including Man who are made up of collections of cells Each one of these levels appears animated by a conscience of its own Is there any evidence of a still higher level of conscience belonging to human communities and therefore supra human in kind The author believes that this is so and that cultural manifestations mostly language and scripture exert in these communities the same role that genes in biological organisms in other words they are carriers of information Cultural specifications he affirms could be used to predict societal dynamics including the fate of economic and political systems The works include examples of the evolution of cultural traits in human communities as well as parallel evolutionary studies of human groups a process that could be compared to evolutionary radiation among biological species

The Creative Conscience as Human Destiny Eduard Hugo Strauch, 2004 The Creative Conscience as Human Destiny explains how human nature derived from our biogenetic evolution Whereas human ingenuity and self realization replicate nature's creativity its morphogenesis human conscience epitomizes the integration of organic life its symbiosis These mutual processes became incarnate as humanity's creative conscience Similarly the co evolution of man and woman has enabled us to create cultures and civilization From our intimation of a Supreme Being in nature human beings have also evolved a supraconscience By acknowledging the wisdom of nature we have a philosophy of life for the future

This Thing Called Reason Benjamin K. Akih, 2025-05-06 This book offers a conceptual analysis of reason proposing a plausible theory to resolve persistent vagueness in the historical use of the concept The proposed theory leads to the view that reason is fundamentally subjective and dependent on non inferential matters of faith Despite the inherent subjectivity we can arrive at a consensus in reasoning exercises because we all participate in a universal minimum religion that grounds all reasoning True atheism is therefore impossible This analysis bears on debates about the relation between faith and reason as well as the relation between ethics based on reason and ethics based on sentiments The book further shows that this new and original view of religiously constrained reason ought to equally inform our thinking about applied ethics such as politics law and economics

The Expansion of Europe 1642-1789 Wilbur Abbott, 2017-12-20 WHEN in the last months of 1648 was signed the great peace which brought to an end the Thirty Years War and with it the mediaeval polity which it finally destroyed as the army of diplomats whose work it was dispersed to their respective governments the awe inspiring mass of documents which formed the fruit of their long labors might have led men to believe that Europe would hasten to enjoy the peace which she so needed and which her people for the most part so greatly desired But whatever hopes of quiet were entertained were already far on the way to disappointment for the Europe to which the diplomats returned was even then altered or altering before their eyes and already shaping itself for new conflict Scarcely a state of any consequence prepared to recruit its resources by the arts of peace scarcely a royal house but faced a crisis in its fortunes scarcely a people but was stirring in unrest or already engaged in revolution So far from ushering in a period of peaceful progress the Westphalian treaties became the starting point for new and bloody rivalries

Standing, 2023-12-29 Having a conscience distinguishes humans from the most advanced AI systems Acting in good conscience consulting one's conscience and being conscience wracked are all aspects of human intelligence that involve reckoning deriving general laws from particular inputs and vice versa and judgement contemplating the relationship of the reckoning system to the world While AI developers have mastered reckoning they are still working towards the creation of judgement This book sheds light on the reckoning and judgement of conscience by demonstrating how these concepts are explored in Everyman Doctor Faustus The Merchant of Venice and Hamlet Academic student or general interest readers discover the complexity and multiplicity of the early modern concept of conscience which is informed by the scholastic intellectual tradition juridical procedures of the court of Chancery the practical advice of Protestant casuistry and Reformation theology The aims are to examine the rubrics for thinking through regulating and judging actions that define the various consciences of Shakespeare's day to use these rubrics to interpret questions of truth and action in early modern plays and to offer insights into what it is about conscience that developers want to grasp to eliminate the difference between human and non human intelligences and achieve true AI
