Good and evil fairies abound in this rich collection of compelling tales by one of the foremost fantasy writers of the nineteenth century So do magical lands sinister monsters giants ogres and other creatures from the realm of the imagination In The Light Princess a young royal bewitched at birth by her spiteful aunt is cursed with uncontrollable bouts of lightness Gravity it seems doesn't affect her A little boy in The Golden Key is told he can find a magical key at the end of the rainbow What the key will open though is part of its mystery And in The Giant's Heart the monster in question is truly heartless for he's hidden his heart and it's up to two determined children to find the awful thing and put an end to the colossal ogre These and five other beguiling tales all delightfully illustrated by famed pre-Raphaelite painter Arthur Hughes are sure to charm readers of all ages those already familiar with MacDonald and those about to meet him for the first time
