Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador María Jesús Hernáez Lerena, 2015-09-18 The Canadian province of Newfoundland and Labrador is a mythologized place that resonates with tragic adventure polar expeditions and Grand Banks fishing a real and imagined geography with an incredible artistic output that calls for critical discussion This book examines the diversity of this province's literature and culture taking into consideration the expertise of scholars and writers who have first hand knowledge of its unique context Chapters on history travel fiction autobiography poetry theatre storytelling filmmaking and the visual arts provide an up to date survey across a broad range of artistic endeavours as well as close readings of selected texts The questions that fill the pages of Pathways of Creativity in Contemporary Newfoundland and Labrador arise from the awareness its contributors have of historically shared experiences but also of shared delusions and their essays provoke contemplation beyond the labels local global Newfoundlander Come From Away Aboriginal histories and writing come to the foreground in this panoramic view that balances descriptions of mainstream vernacular and Indigenous cultural productions The final chapter is organized as a multi voiced interview which serves as a supplement to the academic essays Here themes are revisited and personalized as several writers express their feelings about what it means to be a Newfoundlander and an artist As such this book will encourage dialogue about Newfoundland and Labrador's literary and artistic achievements within the international community of readers and researchers

On Record Beverley Diamond, 2021-05-12 Musical media and the audio recording industry have an important and complex history in Newfoundland and Labrador professional musicians community songwriters local institutions and even politicians have gone on record The result is a widespread body of work that undercuts the idea of recorded music as a cultural commodity and deepens the province's tradition of cultural activism Drawing on contemporary testimony and over fifty years of interviews On Record explores how recording projects have served as sonic signatures forms of protest homage or parody of the foibles of those in power Beverley Diamond examines how audio recording in Newfoundland and Labrador has been shaped not merely by creative individuals but by such events as resettlement residential schools the cod moratorium technological change and disasters that have befallen those who live and work on the North Atlantic A chapter by ethnomusicologist and musician Mathias Kom examines the widespread response to a unique annual challenge to make an audio recording Spanning both commercial and community oriented initiatives this book reflects the vibrant socially engaged and resilient nature of communities that value simultaneously and equally the highest professional standards and the creative potential of every citizen Encompassing music from both settler and Indigenous communities On Record redefines the culture of a province that has most often been associated with traditional music demonstrating that recording goes beyond the creation of a commodity it responds to the present and to constructs of public memory

Rewind and Search Mary Jane Miller, 1996-04-15 The first half of Rewind and Search looks at the makers the producers directors writers story editors and actors while the second half deals with the decision makers issues policy and ethos that affect the making of CBC television including drama Miller pays particular attention to the ways in which programs were influenced by evolving audience expectations technological advances and changes in policy personnel and the corporate structure of the CBC With more cutbacks and a change of mandate looming on the horizon the CBC is at a crossroads Rewind and Search reveals the value of television drama as an important part of our Canadian heritage a part that should not be ignored

Turn Up the Contrast Mary Jane Miller, 2011-11-01 From Shakespeare to cop shows sitcoms to docudramas for over three decades the CBC has presented viewers with every variety of television drama and has become Canada's closest equivalent to a national theatre Turn Up the Contrast is the first book to explore the content of Canadian television drama and is both a critical analysis and a survey history of how Canadians have used the medium to tell themselves their own stories As a part of her research Mary Jane Miller watched thousands of hours of television sampling series and viewing in their entirety shorter programs such as movies and mini series Asking a variety of questions she selected a number of programs for detailed analysis and devotees of The Beachcombers King of Kensington Seeing Things Cariboo Country Wojeck or A Gift to Last will be pleased to find their favourites among those discussed at length A University of British Columbia Press CBC Enterprises Co Publication
