priests as a gender unto themselves and considers women as potential participants in the lay service of the Temple and perhaps even as part of the sacred service Middot concerns itself with the design of the Temple and the commentary explores sacred space from a gendered perspective Finally Marx turns to Qinnim a tractate dealing with bird offerings typically brought by women The commentary shows how the tractate employs images of women to develop its discourse This volume opens a unique window onto the rabbis perspectives on the Temple and gender related matters
