Tales from the Suwannee River Country Emily Curtis,2002-12 Tales of the Suwannee River Country a collection of twenty six stories and essays traces the personal journey of Emily B Curtis who grew up in North Florida during the Great Depression As a shy young writer and pianist Emily led a life of poetry and music and later became a teacher Her father a local attorney defended the victims of shootings in the region which introduced Emily to the world s evils and ultimately taught her powerful lessons about life From stories about small town American life in the South to regional history and fiction Tales of the Suwannee River Country will take you back in time to when the world was simpler and more secure

Spooky Stories from the Swamp Doug Alderson, 2020-08-03 Florida's famous swamps from the Everglades to Mosquito Lagoon to Tate's Hell serve as fitting backdrops for these chilling original stories Maybe it's because they are often wet shadowy places of wild beauty where few people dare to penetrate They are havens for snakes alligators black bears wildcats and who knows what People on the run have often hidden in swamps while others have gotten lost in the watery expanses the swamp can be a refuge or a nightmare Mysterious things just happen in swamps Maybe it's because they are often wet shadowy places of wild beauty where few people dare to penetrate They are havens for snakes alligators black bears wildcats and who knows what People on the run have often hidden in swamps while others have gotten lost in the watery expanses the swamp can be a refuge or a nightmare Where else can you find a ghost baby or an angry specter or a lost soul How about a ghost who is obsessed with the ghost orchid or an alluring snake woman Throw in a skunk ape or two and you ve got the ingredients for many entertaining hours sharing these stories around a campfire or reading them to yourself or out loud

Wings ,1937 Those Smoke-Filled Rooms Wallace Lawson Jernigan, James Martin Rhodes, 2011-01-20 Wallace Jernigan has somehow managed to fill the time allotted for one life with a multitude of lives well lived His thirst for knowledge made him a civil engineer a businessman a beekeeper and a licensed mortician His zeal for adventure led him into politics music and bear hunting But that s not even half the story In this tale of the first half of his life Wallace traces a personal journey from 1925 to 1962 from the Great Depression to Desegregation With his trademark sense of good humor and his genuine love for people he tells the story of his unique American adventure From rural southern Georgia and his beloved Okefenokee Swamp to the heights of state political power under the Gold Dome in Atlanta Wallace Jernigan tells his story He lifts the veil off the headlines from the Atlanta newspapers to show how life and politics really operated in the middle of the twentieth century Come on in and see who s in Those Smoke Filled Rooms demonstration the Dade County Commission ultimately designated the difficult to access Virginia Key as a beach for African Americans The beach became vitally important to the community offering a place to congregate with family and friends and to enjoy the natural wonders of the area It was also a tangible victory in the continuing struggle for civil rights in public space As Florida beaches were later desegregated many viewed Virginia Key as symbolic of an oppressive past and ceased to patronize it At the same time white leaders responded to desegregation by decreasing attention to and funding for public spaces in general The beach was largely ignored and eventually shut down In White Sand Black Beach historian and longtime Miami activist Gregory Bush recounts this unique story and the current state of the public waterfront in Miami Recently environmentalists community leaders and civil rights activists have come together to revitalize the beach and Bush highlights the potential to stimulate civic engagement in public planning processes While local governments defer to booster and lobbying interests pushing for destination casinos and boat shows Bush calls for a land ethic that connects people to the local environment He seeks to shift the local political divisions beyond established interest groups and neoliberalism to a broader vision that simplifies human needs and reconnects people to fundamental values such as health A place of fellowship relaxation and interaction with nature this beach Bush argues offers a common ground of hope for a better future The North Dakota Quarterly, 2006 More Shipwrecks of Florida Steven Danforth Singer, 2019-11-26 More Shipwrecks of Florida is a sequel to Shipwrecks of Florida 2nd edition This new book with all new content adds over 1 500 shipwrecks to the guide and includes additional information on hundreds of previously listed shipwrecks all organized by year It also includes more GPS coordinates as well as stories of pirates and privateers wreckers and buried and sunken treasure The Florida Story Jack Kofoed, 1960 Information on the people resorts history hotels restaurants and night life from the Keys to the Panhandle Wisconsin Reading Circles ,1942 Tales of the Western World Ruth Elgin Suddeth, Constance Gay Morenus, 1953 Thirty eight stories chosen from the varied folklore traditions of the New World Florida from Indian Trail to Space Age Charlton W.
