Tales Of Time And Space:

Tales of Space and Time Herbert George Wells, 1899 Tales of Space and Time H.G. Wells, 2018-04-05 Reproduction of the original Tales of Space and Time by H G Wells Romanian Folklore and its Archaic Heritage Ana R. Chelariu, 2023-02-13 This book presents rich information on Romanian mythology and folklore previously under explored in Western scholarship placing the source material within its historical context and drawing comparisons with European and Indo European culture and mythological tradition The author presents a detailed comparative study and argues that Romanian mythical motifs have roots in Indo European heritage by analyzing and comparing mythical motifs from the archaic cultures Greek Latin Celtic Sanskrit and Persian with written material and folkloric data that reflects the Indo European culture The book begins by outlining the history of the Getae Dacians beginning with Herodotus description of their customs and beliefs in the supreme god Zamolxis then moves to the Roman wars and the Romanization process before turning to recent debates in linguistics and genetics regarding the provenance of a shared language religion and culture in Europe The author then analyzes myth creation its relation to rites and its functions in society before examining specific examples of motifs and themes from Romanian folk tales and songs This book will be of interest to students and scholars of folklore studies comparative mythology linguistic anthropology and European culture Travel, Time, and Space in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen, 2018-10-22 Research on medieval and early modern travel literature has made great progress which now allows us to take the next step and to analyze the correlations between the individual and space throughout time which contributed essentially to identity formation in many different settings The contributors to this volume engage with a variety of pre modern texts images and other documents related to travel and the individual s self orientation in foreign lands and make an effort to determine the concept of identity within a spatial framework often determined by the meeting of various cultures Moreover objects images and words can also travel and connect people from different worlds through books The volume thus brings together new scholarship focused on the interrelationship of travel space time and individuality which also includes of course women s movement through the larger world whether in concrete terms or through proxy travel via readings Travel here is also examined with respect to craftsmen s activities at various sites artists employment for many different projects all over Europe and elsewhere and in terms of metaphysical experiences catabasis Once Upon a Time in the Contemporary World Elena Polyudova, 2016-04-26 This volume brings together a selection of streams present in modern mass media culture from classic cartoons to TV series The chapters form a rich mosaic of interconnecting themes and highlight the current process of transforming well known fairy tale plots The book considers recent media productions such as Once Upon a Time and Beauty and the Beast as modern fairy tales for children and adults showing these new versions of familiar characters to reflect the psychological demands of the contemporary audience in the post modernist cultural environment In addition the book explores new Internet fiction genres including fan fiction interactive fairy tales and fairy tale blogs As a part of cultural studies the book considers classic cartoons based on books such as Mowgli and The Little Prince from philosophical and cross cultural points of view Channeling Wonder Pauline Greenhill, Jill Terry Rudy, 2014-10-06 Scholars of cultural studies fairy tale studies folklore and television studies will enjoy this first of its kind volume Neil Gaiman in the 21st Century Tara Prescott, 2015-03-19 Neil Gaiman has emerged as one of the most influential literary figures of the 21st century To borrow a phrase from his viral 2012 University of the Arts commencement speech Gaiman makes good art from his graphic novels to his social media collaborations award winning fantasy fiction and beloved children s books This collection of new essays examines a range of Gaiman s prolific output with readings of the novels American Gods Anansi Boys The Graveyard Book and The Ocean at the End of the Lane Children s books The Wolves in the Walls and Blueberry Girl and the online short story collection A Calendar of Tales are discussed Gaiman s return to the serial comic book form with Sandman Overture is covered and artist JH Williams III contributes an exclusive interview about his collaboration with Gaiman on Overture Cartoonist Judd Winick offers a personal essay on his connection to Gaiman s work Last Cry - Native American Prophecies & Tales of the End Times Robert Ghost Wolf, 2003-11-16 Last cry remains a time tested revelation about Prophecy and the coming of the Awakening Dr Ghost Wolf has the unique ability of bridging many realities Here he brings to light not only an indepth look at the teachings of the indigenous masters but he also gives us profound insights into his own remarkable gifts of prophecy as a Shaman for the Metis People and leaves us looking ahead into the 21st Century with new eyes Welcome to the Awakening The Oxford Companion to Fairy Tales Jack Zipes, 2015-09-10 In over 1 000 entries this acclaimed Companion covers all aspects of the Western fairy tale tradition from medieval to modern under the guidance of Professor Jack Zipes It provides an authoritative reference source for this complex and captivating genre exploring the tales themselves the writers who wrote and reworked them and the artists who illustrated them It also covers numerous related topics such as the fairy tale and film television art opera ballet the oral tradition music advertising cartoons fantasy literature feminism and stamps First published in 2000 130 new entries have been added to account for recent developments in the field including J K Rowling and Suzanne Collins and new articles on topics such as cognitive criticism and fairy tales digital fairy tales fairy tale blogs and websites and pornography and fairy tales The remaining entries have been revised and updated in consultation with expert contributors This second edition contains beautifully designed feature articles highlighting countries with a strong fairy tale tradition covering Britain and Ireland France Germany Italy Japan North America and Canada Portugal Scandinavian countries Slavic and Baltic countries and Spain It also includes an informative and engaging introduction by the editor which sets the subject in its historical and literary context A detailed and updated bibliography provides information about background literature and further reading material In addition the A to Z entries are accompanied by over 60 beautiful and carefully selected black and white illustrations Already renowned in its field the second edition of this unique work is an essential companion for

Landscapes and Learning ,2009-01-01 Places are made after their stories Just as place names describe complex and conflicted place making aspirations so with all marks associated with the marking of places tracks the symbolic representation of these in song dance and poetic speech indeed all the technologies that join up distances into narratives they all inscribe the earth s surface with the forms of stories Of course these are not the same as the foundational myths of imperial cultures whose aim is to displace any prior discourse of place making They are stories of and as journeys passages in a double sense constitutionally incomplete because they always await their completion in the act of crossing over or meeting which of course is endless Paul Carter Landscapes and Learning maps some of these stories and passageways to open up new place making possibilities The book uses the lens of place to explore how we can respond differently to some of the major questions of our time Postcolonial global concerns such as increased displacement and migration the loss of indigenous knowledges and the imperatives of environmental degradation and climate change require critical educational responses Place studies provides new languages and fresh metaphors to open up interdisciplinary conversations in the space between local and global and indigenous and non indigenous knowledges Through its focus on the mutual constitution of bodies identities histories spaces and places place studies offers a conceptual tool for important cultural and environmental transformations

Two Questers in the Twentieth-century North Africa Imen Ayari Cozzo,2016-09-23 This book offers a unique exploration of the work of Paul Bowles and Ibrahim Alkoni and reveals timely insights into the relationship between the West and the Orient showing that they both challenge and extend existing scholarship on this subject It builds on a sound theoretical platform which serves as a solid foundation for the analysis of the overarching theme Theories of place representation Orientalism and post colonialism are discussed in depth and are linked to the deconstruction and analysis of the selected literary texts helping the reader understand the various quests and motivations of the protagonists of the works of Bowles and Alkoni The first part of the book looks into the work of Bowles and is based on the fact that many of the author s texts revolve around the theme of encounters between Western and Eastern cultures It adopts a specific focus on the North African space which is depicted from a number of different points of view including native French English and American perspectives The second section discusses the work of the Libyan author Ibrahim Alkoni as a quester for a Mythical Identity It introduces the reader to the significance of the desert in both classical and modern Arabic literature and its place in the Arabic cultural imaginary This work is highly original both in its approach and subject matter and as such it constitutes a valuable contribution to the study of comparative literature Arabic literature and postcolonial magical realist literature It offers many original insights into this little studied field demonstrating a successful venture into less trodden terrain

The Chinese Text Yingxiong Zhou,1986 The collection opens with Harry Levin s What is Literature if Not CComparative read in the Second Hong Kong Comparative Literature Conference 1982 and used here to highlight the significance of a comparative outlook in literary studies It is followed by five constellations of Chinese Western comparative studies some of which were read in the same conference and others specifically solicited The areas studied include classical Chinese drama Chinese narrative Chinese influence in modern American literature Chinese aesthetics and contemporary Chinese literature P 4 of cover
