Tales From Old Baghdad:

Tales from an Old Soldier's Footlocker Logan Barbee, 2024-03-11 In basic training every soldier used to keep a wooden footlocker near the bed. It was a place to store trinkets, memorabilia, photos, and keepsakes. That's how Logan Browning Barbee, a retired U.S. Army colonel who later served as an adviser to the Iraqi government, thinks about this book as a place to hold a hodgepodge of stories. In addition to his career in the military and government, Barbee was a teacher, merchant seaman, county extension director at the University of Florida, family man, and so much more. In this memoir, he shares highlights from his life, beginning with his boyhood in the country in Calhoun County, North Florida, to a jarring move as a teenager when he moved to town. He missed country living and went from being an A student to a C student. He also looks back at joining the Merchant Marines, being drafted, serving twenty-two years in the Army, his time in Iraq, and a lifetime of adventures. Join the author as he shares tales from his footlocker that reveal his identity, personality, and legacy. The Middlepause Marina Benjamin, 2017-03-14 In The Middlepause, Benjamin deftly and brilliantly examines the losses and unexpected gains she experienced in menopause. Menopause is as monumental and universal as puberty, yet far less often discussed, especially in public, which is what makes Benjamin's work here so urgently necessary. Kate Tuttle, The Los Angeles Times. The Middlepause offers a vision of contentment in middle age without sentiment or delusion. Marina Benjamin weighs the losses and opportunities of our middle years, taking inspiration from literature, science, philosophy, and her own experience. Spurred by her surgical propulsion into a sudden menopause, she finds ways to move forward while maintaining clear-eyed acknowledgment of the challenges of aging: attending to complicated elderly parents and a teenaged daughter experiencing bereavement, her own health woes, and a fresh impetus to give. Benjamin emerges into a new definition of herself as daughter, mother, citizen, and woman. Among The Middlepause's many wise observations about no longer being young, "I am discovering that I care less about what other people think. My needs are leaner, and my storehouse fuller. It is not possible to fully appreciate what it means to age without attending to what the body knows. I have always had a knee-jerk distaste for the idea that age is all in the mind. You need a cohort of peers to go through the aging process with you. A cackle of crones." A cavalry. Marina Benjamin's memoir will serve as a comfort, a companion to women going through the too-seldom-spoken-of physical and mental changes in middle age and beyond. Banipal, 2003

For nearly a thousand years, storytellers have gathered in the Jemaa el Fna, the legendary square of the city, to recount ancient folktales and fables to rapt audiences. But this unique chain of oral tradition that has passed seamlessly from generation to generation is teetering on the brink of extinction. The competing distractions of television movies and the internet have drawn the crowds away from the storytellers and few have the desire to learn the stories and continue their legacy Richard Hamilton has witnessed at first hand the death throes of this rich and captivating tradition and in the labyrinth of the Marrakech medina has tracked down the last few remaining storytellers recording stories that are replete with the mysteries and beauty of the Maghreb

The Annotated Arabian Nights: Tales from 1001 Nights (The Annotated Books) Paulo Lemos Horta, 2021-11-16

An electric new translation Each page is adorned with illustrations and photographs from other translations and adaptations of the tales as well as a wonderfully detailed cascade of notes that illuminate the stories and their settings The most striking feature of the Arabic tales is their shifting registers prose rhymed prose poetry and Seale captures the movement between them beautifully Yasmine Al Sayyad New Yorker A magnificent and richly illustrated volume with a groundbreaking translation framed by new commentary and hundreds of images of the most famous story collection of all time A cornerstone of world literature and a monument to the power of storytelling the Arabian Nights has inspired countless authors from Charles Dickens and Edgar Allan Poe to Naguib Mahfouz Clarice Lispector and Angela Carter Now in this lavishly designed and illustrated edition of The Annotated Arabian Nights the acclaimed literary historian Paulo Lemos Horta and the brilliant poet and translator Yasmine Seale present a splendid new selection of tales from the Nights featuring treasured original stories as well as later additions including Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp and Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves and definitively bringing the Nights out of Victorian antiquarianism and into the twenty first century For centuries readers have been haunted by the homicidal King Shahriyar thrilled by gripping tales of Sinbad's seafaring adventures and held utterly exquisitely captive by Shahrazad's stories of passionate romances and otherworldly escapades Yet for too long the English speaking world has relied on dated translations by Richard Burton Edward Lane and other nineteenth century adventurers Seale's distinctly contemporary and lyrical translations break decisively with this masculine dynasty finally stripping away the deliberate exoticism of Orientalist renderings while reclaiming the vitality and delight of the stories as she works with equal skill in both Arabic and French Included within are famous tales from The Story of Sinbad the Sailor to The Story of the Fisherman and the Jinni as well as lesser known stories such as The Story of Dalila the Crafty in which the cunning heroine takes readers into the everyday life of merchants and shopkeepers in a crowded metropolis and The Story of the Merchant and the Jinni an example of a ransom frame tale in which stories are exchanged to save a life Grounded in the latest scholarship The Annotated Arabian Nights also incorporates the Hanna Diyab stories for centuries seen as French forgeries but now acknowledged largely as a result of Horta's pathbreaking research as being firmly rooted in the Arabic narrative tradition Horta not only takes us into the astonishing twists and turns of the stories evolution He also offers comprehensive notes on just about everything readers need to know to appreciate the tales in context and guides us through the origins of ghouls jinn and other supernatural elements that have always drawn in and delighted readers Beautifully illustrated throughout with art from Europe and the Arab and Persian world the latter often ignored in English language editions The Annotated Arabian Nights expands the visual dimensions of the stories revealing how the Nights have always been and still are in dialogue with fine artists With a poignant autobiographical foreword from best selling novelist Omar El Akkad and an illuminating afterword on the Middle Eastern roots of Hanna Diyab s tales from noted scholar Robert Irwin Horta and Seale have created a stunning edition of the Arabian Nights that will enchant and inform both devoted and novice readers alike Time & Tide Helen A. Archdale, Margaret Haig Thomas Mackworth (Viscountess Rhondda), 1955
