A Christian and African Ethic of Women's Political Participation Léocadie W. Lushombo, 2022-11-30 This book surveys a broad panorama of Christian and African traditions to discover and assess the components that will illuminate and motivate a Christian and African ethic of women's political participation The author's primary lens for diagnosing the problems faced by women in Africa is Engelbert Mveng's concept of anthropological poverty that results from slavery and colonialism It affects women in unique ways and is exacerbated by the religious and cultural histories of women's oppression The author advocates an interplay between the sacredness of every individual's life a salient principle of Christian ethics and the collective consciousness of solidarity distinctive to African cultures This interplay can in turn foster a more enlightened approach to African masculinity Using a sophiological hermeneutic this in depth study undertakes a moral imagination through narrative criticism It argues that the existential reality of African women must be addressed as an essential element in the development of Christian socio political ethic The righteous solidaristic and resistant anger of women can transform patriarchy and inform Catholic social teaching The author draws on The Circle of concerned African women theologians postcolonial theorists inculturation theology African males and Jon Sobrino's liberation theology to present an innovative Christian ethic that will radically affect the lives of African women and inform feminist theology

It was detested by those who stick to the theory of ongoing and irreversible secularisation and welcomed by those who see a resurgence of religion also in Europe In the present volume scholars of religion and theologians assess the global trends in World Christianity as described in Philip Jenkins book It is the outcome of an international conference on Southern Christianity and its relation to Christianity in the North held in the Conference Centre of Radboud University Nijmegen the Netherlands Power, Agency, and Women in the Mission of God Susan L. Gowler,2012-01-26 On the margins of the biblical canon and on the boundaries of what are traditionally called mainstream Christian communities there have been throughout history writings and movements which have been at odds with the received wisdom and the consensus of establishment opinion If one listens carefully these dissident voices are reflected in the Bible itself whether in the radical calls for social change from the Hebrew Bible prophets with Jesus the apocalyptic prophet who also demanded social and economic justice for his oppressed people or perhaps from the apocalyptic tradition s millenarian visions The use of the Bible has been fertile ground throughout Christian history for prophetic calls for radical change within society as a whole and the church in particular The essays contained in this volume examine aspects of this radical tradition its doctrine hermeneutics pedagogy and social action They offer a sustained development of the theme of the Bible and its reception and appropriation in the context of radical practices and an exposition of the imaginative possibilities of radical engagement with the Bible in inclusive social contexts Part 1 treats New Testament texts directly the Lukan writings Paul and the Book of Revelation Part 2 explores some examples of reception history and of radical appropriation of the Bible in history and literature Part 3 addresses contemporary issues in liberation theology and public theology This book is a Festschrift in honour of Professor Christopher Rowland the Dean Ireland s Professor of the Exegesis of Holy Scripture in the University of Oxford The

^A New Faces of Christianity Philip Jenkins, 2006-09-01 Named one of the top religion books of 2002 by USA Today Philip Jenkins's phenomenally successful The Next Christendom permanently changed the way people think about the future of Christianity In that volume Jenkins called the world's attention to the little noticed fact that Christianity's center of gravity was moving inexorably southward to the point that Africa may soon be home to the world's largest Christian populations Now in this brilliant sequel Jenkins takes a much closer look at Christianity in the global South revealing what it is like and what it means for the future Mother Earth, Mother Africa and Biblical Studies Berman, Sidney K., Leshota, Paul L., Dunbar, Ericka S., Dube, Musa W., 2021-07-14 The Bible and the Hermeneutics of Liberation Alejandro F. Botta, Pablo R. Andinach, 2009 Gender and African Indigenous Religions Musa W. Dube, Telesia K.
