Terrorism And Justice Moral Argument In A Threatened World:

Terrorism And Justice Michael O'Keefe, Tony Coady, 2013-05-09 The terrorist attacks on the United States on 11 September 2001 profoundly shocked the international community Policy makers are increasingly aware of the inadequacy of existing intellectual moral and legal frameworks for dealing with such events Terrorism and Justice is the first book since September 11 to address philosophically the moral and political underpinnings of terrorism and anti terrorism It brings together authors with different attitudes and original perspectives on the ethical and practical justifications offered for terrorism and different conceptual frameworks for assessing and justifying responses to terrorism Some defend the principle that non combatants innocents or civilians should be immune from attack others qualify it others again argue that traditional distinctions between combatants and non combatants do not apply in the case of terrorism Can terrorism ever be justified If not what are the grounds for condemning it Is your terrorist my freedom fighter What are the morally appropriate responses to terrorism diplomatically militarily and ethically These are some of the questions this timely book seeks to explore

Civilisation and Fear Wojciech Kalaga, Agnieszka Kliś, 2012-03-15 Paradoxically if nature has always been a source of fear civilisation its other and at the same time the epitome of progress and order has not only doubled fear itself but also added its new sister anxiety In effect the notions of civilisation fear and anxiety can hardly be separated Fear either linked with anxiety or distinct from it lies at the foundation of civilisation which as much promises to shelter us from these afflictions as it does proliferate them Confronted no longer with the adversary powers of nature humans have to face now the adversary powers produced by their own endeavours and ideologies Each effort aimed at attaining an equilibrium results in new unexpected rifts and breaches into which fear and anxiety grow Out of the games played between fear and civilisation there emerge new versions of the human subject homo anxious homo civilis homo rationalis This volume represents a collection of papers devoted to the many various relations between fear and society culture and civilisation both Western and Eastern contemporary and past The articles collected here approach the relationship of civilisation fear anxiety and the subject from multiple perspectives Relating to modern critical thought including that of Kant Freud Derrida Kierkegaard and Heidegger they investigate the objects causes and effects of fear reality nature reason libidinal excess atheism critical discourse technological advances conspiracy terrorism capital punishment the diversity of cultures and the breakdown of civilisation as a whole most of all however they explore the various shades of fear itself
