The Text of the Fourth Gospel in the Writings of Origen Bart D. Ehrman, Gordon D. Fee, Michael William Holmes, 1992-01-01 The Text of the Gospels in Clement of Alexandria Carl P. Cosaert, 2008 Writing and Rewriting the Gospels James W. Barker, 2025-01-30 A compelling reappraisal of the relationships between the canonical gospels Biblical scholars have long debated the Synoptic problem and the literary relationship between the Gospel of John and the Synoptics During the twentieth century the consensus shifted decisively to the Two Source hypothesis for the Synoptic problem along with the view that John's Gospel was independent of the Synoptics In recent decades all consensus has dissolved yet these questions retain currency and significance James W Barker takes up these questions and reappraises the evidence Drawing on his expertise in ancient compositional practices he makes a persuasive case for a snowballing trajectory whereby each canonical gospel drew upon other canonical gospels Thus Mark was written first Matthew draws on Mark Luke draws on Mark and Matthew and the last of the four John is dependent on all three Synoptics and was meant to be read alongside them This judicious and ambitious study will be of interest to New Testament scholars as well as general readers who want to know more about the literary relationships between the gospels Ancient Texts, Papyri, and Manuscripts , 2022-05-20 This volume honors Prof James R Royse on the occasion of his seventy fifth birthday and celebrates his scholarly achievement in the fields of New Testament textual criticism and Philonic studies An introductory section contains a biographical notice on the honoratus and a complete list of his scholarly publications Part one contains nine articles on New Testament textual criticism focusing on methodological issues difficult passages and various textual witnesses Part two presents eight studies on the thought writings textual record and reception of Philo of Alexandria This wide ranging collection of articles will introduce the reader to new findings in the scholarly fields to which Prof Royse continues to make such an outstanding contribution The Text of New Testament B.M.
