The Healthy Personality and the Christian Life Douglas Hooker, 1977      Secularisation in the Christian World Michael Snape, 2016-04-01 The power of modernity to secularise has been a foundational idea of the western world Both social science and church history understood that the Christian religion from 1750 was deeply vulnerable to industrial urbanisation and the Enlightenment But as evidence mounts that countries of the European world experienced secularising forces in different ways at different periods the timing and causes of de Christianisation are now widely seen as far from straightforward Secularisation in the Christian World brings together leading scholars in the social history of religion and the sociology of religion to explore what we know about the decline of organised Christianity in Britain Europe the United States Canada and Australia The chapters tackle different strands themes comparisons and territories to demonstrate the diversity of approach thinking and evidence that has emerged in the last 30 years of scholarship into the religious past and present The volume includes both new research and essays of theoretical reflection by the most eminent academics It highlights historians and sociologists in both agreement and dispute With contributors from eight countries the volume also brings together many nations for the first consolidated international consideration of recent themes in de Christianisation With church historians and cultural historians and religious sociologists and sociologists of the godless society this book provides a state of the art guide to secularisation studies      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Martin, 2020-03-13 Acting on what started as a hunch Dr Francis Martin has cataloged well over 20 000 distinct approaches to counseling and psychotherapy that are advertised on the webpages of licensed practicing mental health providers No doubt some portion of them are harmful but the sheer volume of advertised practices and techniques often with names deceptively similar to actual evidence based practices should be cause for concern among all stakeholders in the helping professions from educators and researchers to policy makers and insurance companies and especially consumers Based on this significant original study and drawing from other research and supports Therapy Thieves describes a near universal crisis in the field and recommends ways to rescue mental health care from itself The crisis is caused by declining competence among counselors and psychotherapists who have failed to regulate themselves and who therefore deliver inadequate if not harmful services In presenting a simple yet powerful indictment of the field Dr Martin advocates for major reforms in several areas of mental health care including how prospective licensees are trained supervised and licensed a major reworking of professional ethics and the need to establish regulations for mental health care providers In short the book calls for major specific and urgently needed reforms      Theology of Ministry Thomas F.
